

Family Conversation Starters

with Christina Fox

Start a weekly tradition with your family. Order or make a pizza and sit around the table taking turns answering questions.

How did you see God at work today?

What is the hardest thing to obey God in and why?

Name one thing from creation that shows God's power to you

Name a prayer God recently answered for you

Recite your favorite Bible verse while doing jumping jacks.

What is your favorite holiday and why?

Who in your life would you like to commit to pray for?

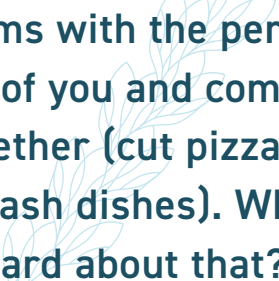

If you had all the money in the world, what would you do with it?

What is your favorite family activity and why?

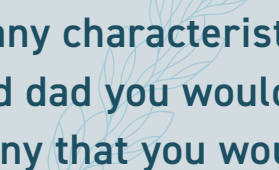

What is your favorite hymn/ praise song at church and why?

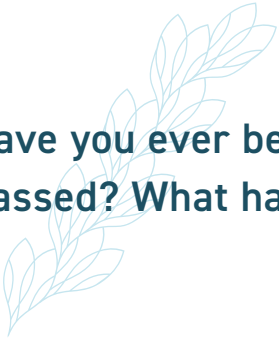

Link arms with the person on the left of you and complete a task together (cut pizza, pour a drink, wash dishes). What was hard about that?

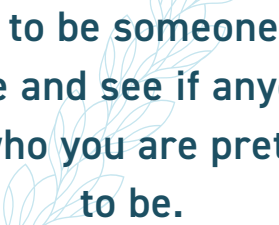

What is your favorite Bible story?

Is there any characteristic about mom and dad you would like to have? Any that you would not?

Have you ever been embarrassed? What happened?

Pretend to be someone else at the table and see if anyone can guess who you are pretending to be.

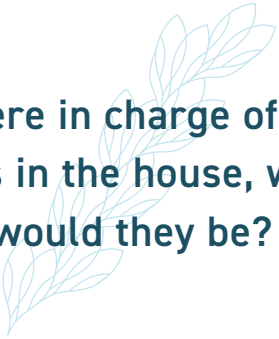

What is your favorite family tradition?

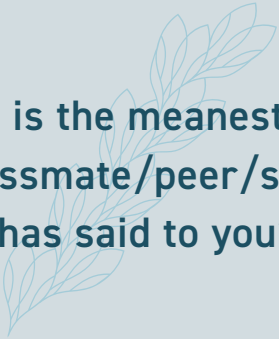

What is your favorite Bible verse?

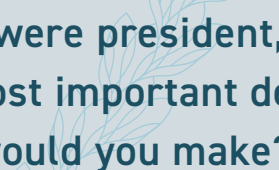

What tradition would you like to see instilled in our home?

If you were in charge of making rules in the house, what would they be?

What is the meanest thing a classmate/peer/sibling has said to you?

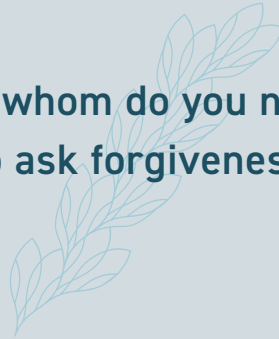

If you were president, what three most important decisions would you make?

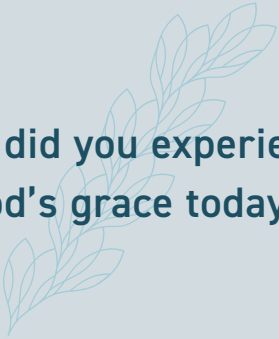

How did you share today?

Recite a Bible verse from memory in another accent or language.

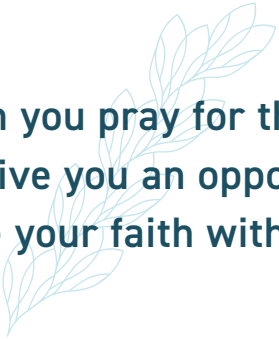

To whom do you need to ask forgiveness?

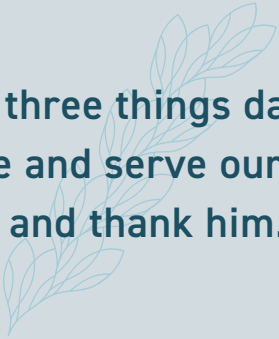

How did you experience God's grace today?

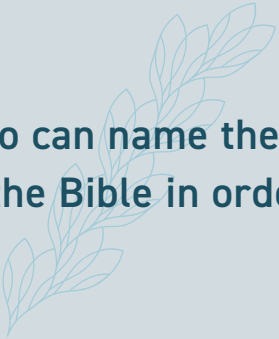

How can you better serve your family?

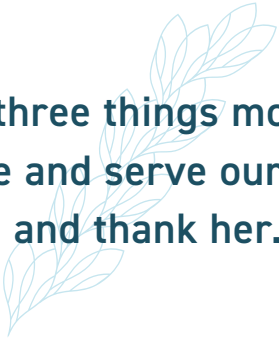

Who can you pray for that God would give you an opportunity to share your faith with them?

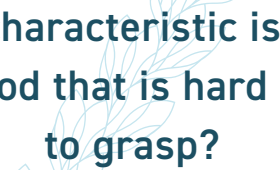

Name three things dad does to love and serve our family and thank him.

See who can name the books of the Bible in order.

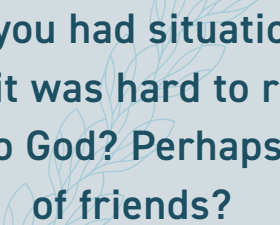

Name three things mom does to love and serve our family and thank her.

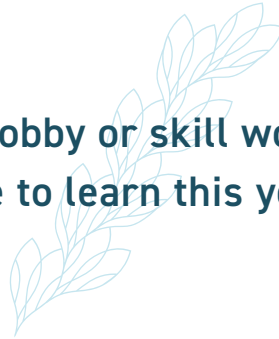

What characteristic is there about God that is hard for you to grasp?

What is a sport you would like to learn?

Have you had situations in which it was hard to remain faithful to God? Perhaps in front of friends?

What hobby or skill would you like to learn this year?

How can we as a family help the suffering around the world?

Can you name the Ten Commandments?

What is your favorite family vacation?

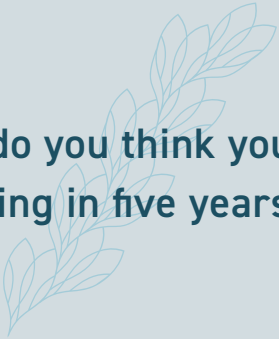

What is your favorite thing to learn in school?

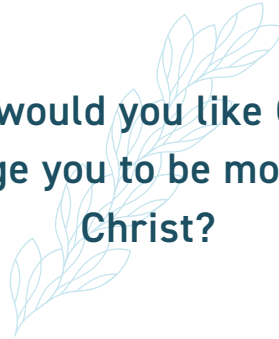

What is the best gift you've ever received?

What is your favorite story/book?

What do you think you'll be doing in five years?

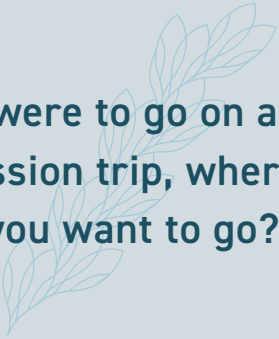

How would you like God to change you to be more like Christ?

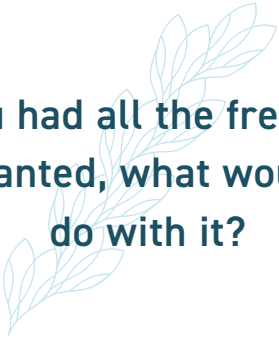

What do you want to do when you grow up?

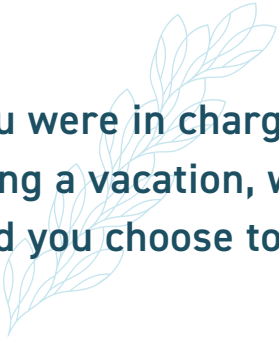

How can lying be hurtful?

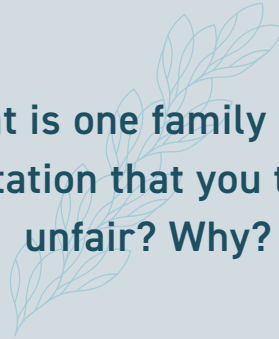

If you were to go on a short term mission trip, where would you want to go?

If you had all the free time you wanted, what would you do with it?

If you were in charge of planning a vacation, where would you choose to go?

What is one family rule/ expectation that you think is unfair? Why?

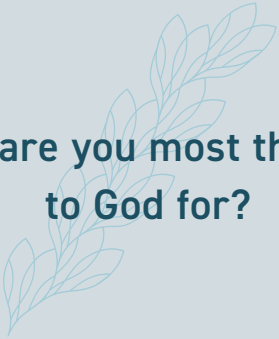

What is your favorite toy?

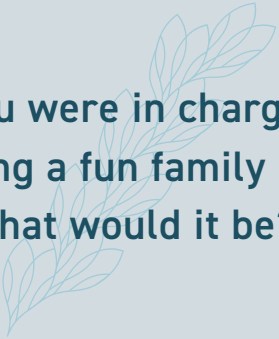

Make up a riddle and see if anyone can guess it.

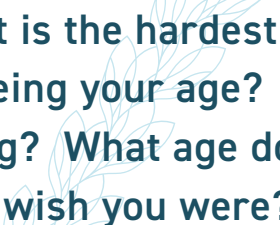

Name a favorite adult (other than mom or dad), why?

What are you most thankful to God for?

If you were in charge of planning a fun family event, what would it be?

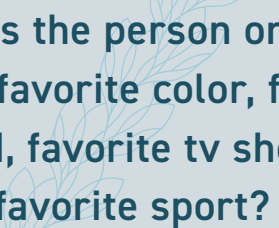

What is the hardest thing about being your age? The best thing? What age do you wish you were?

If you could live anywhere, where would it be?

What scares you?

What is the person on your right's: favorite color, favorite food, favorite tv show, favorite sport?

If you could live in any time in history, when would it be?

What is your most favorite memory?

If you could meet anyone from history, who would it be?

Using your finger, write a message on the back of the person sitting across from you.
See if they can guess what you wrote.

What is the funniest story you've heard?

Create nicknames for everyone at the table.

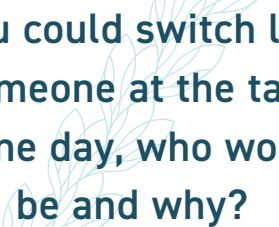

Share about something kind someone did for you this week.

What annoys you the most?
Why do you think that is?

Tell the person on your right three things you love most about them

If you could switch lives with someone at the table for just one day, who would it be and why?

