In addition to the profile, we would also like a recent picture and a personal introduction letter. The letter would be to introduce you to a church and should include the following information: personal information about your family (wife, children), your educational and ministry history, and some information about your gifts, talents, and abilities as they relate to an interim role. The letter should be no more than one page.

Scan and Email this form, your picture, and your one page letter to: Darlene@nextgenchurches.com
