

California Pacific Medical Center San Francisco, CA

Worked with hospital administrators and architect to determine locations for, select, commission, frame and install original artwork and limited edition prints for administrative offices, acute care, palliative care, brain health, and family wellness clinics. Incorporated diverse artworks that promote healing with consideration given to specific populations of each clinic. At client's request, designed and provided a salon style rotating gallery to highlight patient art.

