

2011 Northern Virginia Bird Survey – Summary

Survey Dates - June 1 – July 10, 2011

Number of Points Surveyed	643 (585 in 2010)
Areas Surveyed	Manassas National Battlefield Park, Great Falls Park, Dyke Marsh, Occoquan Bay NWR, Riverbend Park, Huntley Meadows Park, Mt. Vernon District Park, Hollin Hills, Scott’s Run Nature Preserve, Difficult Run Stream Valley, Little Difficult Run Stream Valley, Atwood’s Small Woodlots etc.), Oak Marr Park, Lorton/Laurel Hill, Occoquan Regional Park, Long Branch Nature Center, Glencarlyn Park, Glencarlyn, Monticello Park, Daniels Run Park, Daniels Run (Daniels Run Park to Fairfax City Hall), Fairview, Little River Hills, Old Lee Hills, U.S. Army Ft. Belvoir (Accotink Bay Wildlife Refuge and Training Areas), Fraser Preserve (TNC), Reston, Frying Pan Farm Park, Hidden Pond Nature Center, and Meadowood SRMA
Number of Participants	43 (9 new to the survey) (39 in 2010)
Total Number of Birds	9,931 (Total for the 18 years of the NVBS 175,141)
Number of Bird Species	99 (99 in 2010)
Top 3 Most Abundant Species	Northern Cardinal (675), Tufted Titmouse (545), American Robin (503) (American Crow (357), #6 in rankings  [2010] Common Grackle (529), Northern Cardinal (508), Tufted Titmouse (445) (American Crow (318), #7 in ranking)  [2009] - Northern Cardinal (768), Tufted Titmouse (580), Carolina Wren (573) American Crow (323), #10 in ranking]
Top 3 Most Widely Distributed Species (# of survey points at which present, % of total points)	Northern Cardinal (346,54%), Tufted Titmouse (328,51%), Red-eyed Vireo (247,38%) (American Crow (198,31%), #6 in ranking)  [2010] Northern Cardinal (275, 47%), Tufted Titmouse (275, 47%), Red-eyed Vireo (209, 36%) (American Crow (174, 30%), #7 in ranking)  [2009 - Northern Cardinal (390,61%), Carolina Wren (378,59%), Tufted Titmouse (347,54%) American Crow (191,30%) #8 in ranking]
Average # Birds Per Survey Point	16 (15 in 2010)
Average # Species Per Survey Point	9 (9 in 2010)