

The Classrooms SE1 3QJ

entrance from Weston Street, opposite the Greenwood Theatre

A short walk from London Bridge Rail Station: Come out of the station, turn left, pass the Shard and go down the escalators to St Thomas Street; you will be approaching Guy's Hospital.

Turn left onto St Thomas Street and pass the entrance to the Shangri La Hotel at the base of the Shard. After 30 yards, turn right onto Weston Street (there is no street sign, but Weston street is the first street you come to). Walk 100 yards further and you will find the very pink entrance to the Greenwood Theatre on your right. Directly opposite this on the left, between Nos. 60 & 62, is a small gateway leading to a passage. Push the intercom button to have the gate opened for you, if it is not opened already. Once through the gate, go straight on to the door of the building. If the front gate is open, then at this door you will need to push the intercom on the left. Go in and up the stairs. The studio is on the second (top) floor. There will be signs to welcome you!

...or from London Bridge Tube Station:

Just walk in the direction indicated for the Shard and this will bring you to St Thomas Street, where you will turn left, pass the Shangri La Hotel entrance, and proceed as above.
