

DISSØLV

Seeded with Sacred Tuning Systems & Nature Soundscapes
Conceived with Deep Bass & Tribal Drum
Birthed with Live instrumentation

BIOGRAPHY

DISSØLV has been on an ever evolving sonic journey since 2010 with early origins as a live electronic band opening for world class artists like Shpongle & Infected Mushroom. The story continues to unfold into new dimensions of sound and consciousness as multi-instrumentalists Valentin Santana and Andre Reinero carry the torch onwards, dissolving the minds, bodies and egos of their listeners.

DISSØLV has performed at many Transformational festivals and venues from the Warfield and Fillmore theaters of San Francisco to the Opulent Temple of Burning Man and beyond! With three releases forming a trinity of eclectic sounds from high energy Psytrance and deep / organic Dubstep to the latest heart centered Future Bass release on Kalya Scintilla's record label Merkaba Music, DISSØLV is committed to bringing you conscious, authentic vibrations to stimulate and awaken you on every level.

MEMBERS

Valentin Santana, a Santa Cruz, CA native with East Coast roots, has focused on tribal percussion and classical violin since the age of five. He has studied continuously throughout his life privately, with orchestras, bands and countless summer attendances at conservatory. Valentin holds a degree and multiple certifications in Audio Recording/Production and Music Therapy.

Andre Reinero has immersed himself in the world of music since he was five years old, making him the accomplished musician and diverse artist he is today. From playing piano and baritone sax in orchestras and jazz bands to busting out psychedelic bass and melodic vocals as a singer songwriter, Andre has known nothing but music his whole life. He now holds a degree in audio production and mixing mastering and will continue to surf the sonic journey wherever the music takes him.

Jasmine Semjase channels her background in dance, yoga, and the healing arts as a visionary performance artist. She infuses various dance styles with ritualistic ceremony in devotion to spiritual healing through celebratory release. She has an incredible gift of embodying the divine feminine through dance magic and helps hold the container of the sonic experience as DISSØLV's Ceremonial Priestess. By personifying the music, she serves as a spiritual guide that aids others in releasing their limitations and finding their expressive freedom.
