

Karen Walker

Karen Walker is an executive coach, consultant, speaker and author focused on helping senior leaders create internal strategies that support their organizations' external growth.

Decades ago, Karen helped lead the then-fastest growing company in American history: Compaq Computer, from startup to $15 billion in annual revenue. She now serves as an executive advisor, coach and consultant to CEOs and senior organization leaders to grow their companies — with outcomes including IPOs, acquisitions, market share increases, and dramatic leadership development. Karen's clients include startups, Inc. 500 and Fortune 500 firms.

Her recent book, “No Dumbing Down: A Guide for CEOs on Organization Growth” is a primer for senior leaders on developing their organizations to sustain growth.

Work with Karen

My typical keynote speaking fee in North American is $7500 USD plus travel expenses and includes:

- 30-minute pre-event planning call with event organizers.
- 45-60 minute keynote presentation.
- Optional book signing following the keynote.

I frequently conduct half-day or full-day sessions for clients. These sessions deepen your understanding of the concepts, and participants leave with actionable plans for implementation.

Please email me at karen@karenwalker.us to discuss what is most useful for your organization or visit karenwalker.us for more information.

Don't miss Karen's new book "No Dumbing Down: A No-Nonsense Guide for CEOs on Organization Growth" which focuses on practical solutions to the problems of seniors leaders.
