To Whom It May Concern:

We had a phenomenal show with Jason Lyle Black at our 2016 executive retreat outside Park City. Jason's show blends beautiful music with entertaining comedy and audience interaction, and we loved it. My favorite aspect is how he commanded the audience onstage, weaving in his incredible music ability with humor to create a highly entertaining flow for the program.

I'm happy to recommend Jason Lyle Black to other companies looking for intimate, high-end event entertainment. You'll be inspired, amazed, and entertained.

Sincerely,

Jeff Rust, CEO
