

Too many horses

Key of C

Krabbers

feel free to cover this song but please give me credit, Krabbers x chorus

A A A7 E7
I spent all my money on whiskey and I spent all my wages on wine
A A7 D F
And what I had left I spent on too many horses
A E7 A F#m
That always were the last to cross the line oh lord
A E7 A
That always were the last to cross the line

v1

A A A7 E7
I'm gonna put all my belongings on eBay try to make some extra cash
A A7 D F
I got an email to tell that my stuff did not sell
A E7 A F#m
I guess nobody wants to buy my trash oh lord
A E7 A
I guess nobody wants to buy my trash

v2

A A A7 E7
My landlord he gave me one weeks notice to get out of my home
A A7 D F
Well I banged on his door but the bum would not answer
A E7 A F#m
And he would not pick up his telephone oh lord
A E7 A
He would not pick up his telephone repeat chorus

v3

A A A7 E7
Well I'm out on the street and I'm homeless not a penny to my name

Well I'll tell you one thing if I had one million dollars
I'd probably do the whole damn thing again oh lord
I'd probably do the whole dame thing again

chorus

I'd spend all my money on whiskey and I'd spend all my wages on wine
And what I'd have left I'd spend on two many horses
That always were the last to cross the line oh lord
That always were the last to cross the line.

words and music by Michael hayllor AKA Krabbers ©2012
www.unplugthewood.com