Michael Wainhouse

Dear Parents/Guardians

1. New Governor

We are pleased to welcome Michael Wainhouse, who has a son in Y8, on to the Governing Body.

2. Y11 Work Experience

Y11 have recently completed 2 weeks work experience and we have received some very good reports from local employers.

3. GASP Project

We have been fortunate enough to secure sponsorship enabling 6 more students to take part in this project. It is based in a workshop, runs for 10 weeks and students learn practical skills needed to work in the motor vehicle trade.

4. Residentials

As always, thank you so much to the staff who support these experiences.

Y7 Sleep Over

14 very excited Y7s enjoyed going bowling, having a meal out and then all the fun of sleeping over in school.

Girl's group

A mixed aged group of girls spent the night in a youth hostel and enjoyed trips to the seaside and the New Forest.

5. Anti Bullying Week

"Random acts of kindness" took place throughout the week raising student's awareness on how they can consider others and suggesting ways in which they can show kindness.

Each year group watched a performance from the theatre company, Peer Productions, showing teenagers dealing with acts of bullying.

6. Bingo evening

Thank you to all those who attended the social evening last night. Over £400 was raised that will go towards the costs of the Ski Trip. We were delighted to see over 90 people enjoying the evening. It was such a nice family opportunity. Thank you especially to Penny Harrison who organized the refreshments and called the bingo.

7. In memory of Josh

We have invited Josh's parents to join us this afternoon when Y11 will plant a tree in the Memory Garden. We have also purchased an outdoor wooden gazebo that will become "Josh's Place" in his memory.
