

The Park School

Anti Bullying Policy

At The Park School we aim to provide a safe, caring and friendly environment for all students allowing them to learn effectively, improve their life chances and maximise their potential. We expect students to feel safe in school and on school related journeys. We help them to understand the issues related to bullying and enable them to feel confident in seeking adult support from staff if they feel unsafe at any time. We always take incidents of bullying seriously and they are thoroughly investigated.

Our mission statement is “Respect and achievement for all.”

Specific issues occur in our setting because student’s maturity is not related to their chronological age. Our students need to be taught the importance of respect for each other and understanding diversity. They learn to understand the different behaviour of those with specific special needs or disability. They need to learn to accept and appreciate differences relating to home circumstances, race, religion or culture.

This policy has been discussed with all members of our school community, and a student friendly version has been developed. There are behaviour code posters displayed in all rooms and anti- bullying posters have been designed by students.

The Park was awarded Surrey Silver Charter Mark for anti – bullying 2013

Definition of Bullying

Bullying is the intentional hurting or humiliating of another person. It is usually persistent. There is often a power imbalance that makes it hard for a victim to defend themselves. Occasionally, an incident may be described as bullying even if it is not repeated or persistent. It can be planned and organised or it may be unintentional. It may be perpetrated by individuals or by groups of students.

Bullying can include:

- Physical violence such as hitting pushing or spitting
- Taking or damaging goods
- Name calling

- Teasing or spreading rumours
- Belittling another students abilities or achievements
- Producing offensive graffiti
- Excluding people from groups
- Ridiculing another students appearance
- Misusing technology (internet or mobiles) to hurt or humiliate another person

Homophobic bullying occurs when bullying is motivated by a prejudice against lesbian, gay or bisexual people.

Racist bullying occurs when bullying is motivated because of a person's colour, ethnicity or faith.

Sexist/transgender bullying occurs when bullying is motivated by another person because of their sex or preferred gender.

Reporting and responding to bullying

We have clear reporting systems for the whole school community, including adults.

All incidents are dealt with immediately, taken seriously and investigated fully. Staff listen to all student's accounts and help individuals to interpret and understand what has happened. This may include helping some students to appreciate the need to "let go" and not remain negative about something that happened a long time ago.

Parents are telephoned on the day of an incident.

All behavioural incidents are dealt with in a fair way ensuring that everyone is given a voice. A range of responses appropriate to the situation are utilised including:

- Restorative justice
- Supporting the student who has been upset in explaining to the perpetrator the hurt that they caused
- Sincere apology
- Special time for the victim
- Internal exclusion from their group or for a particular activity for the perpetrator
- Meeting with parents
- Fixed term exclusion

Consequences include an understanding of individual's disabilities and degree of understanding. The school ensures that whatever the necessary outcome, including fixed term exclusions, the incident has been dealt with. There is always a "fresh start".

Incident reports are stored and used to evaluate what consequences and the impact have been. It is also used to identify trends and inform preventative work in school and policy development.
