

DEVOTIONAL QUESTIONS:

- 1. Since the last sermon, you've had a week to live as Hephzibah God's delight is in you. How has this truth impacted your heart and mind?
- 2. The daily grind can blind us from our purpose and calling. What are you doing to see Jesus in the "everyday things of life"?
- 3. We are being trained and equipped to be an answer to Jesus' prayer, which is the work that has been created for us. How does this reality touch your heart and spirit?
- 4. To be equipped means we agree with the Spirit of God when He identifies a broken place in us that needs healing. Are you willing to let the Holy Spirit identify those broken areas in your life? What scripture offers you hope in the process of mending?
- 5. In the process of being equipped, do you typically respond like Martha or Mary of Bethany? This week, how can you respond more like Mary of Bethany?

ИF	EXT STEPS:
1.	In the East, the Trinity is viewed as the Triune sitting at a table and having a conversation. Prayer is listening to that conversation and then praying in agreement with the Trinity. What will you do this week to slow, wait, listen, and pray what the Trinity is praying?
2.	John 17:1 says that Jesus looked up to heaven and then prayed. Describe how you will overcome the negative circumstances that influence your praying and looking to heaven for your equipping.
3.	After praying and worshipping, take time to write down the passions and dreams that God is giving you.
4.	Begin to research what you can do, or what organization/place of service you can be a part of, so you can do what you have been called and equipped to do.
	MART GOALS: Specific - Can you state specifically what you are doing?
b.	Measurable - How can we measure this goal so we will know when you have reached it?
c.	Attainable - Is it within your capabilities and does it depend on you?
d.	Relevant - Do you care enough about this goal to make it a priority?
e.	Time Specific - It has a deadline.
