DEVOTIONAL QUESTIONS:

1. Before we begin this week's devotional journey, write down a highlight from the past week that you are celebrating.
2. When are you most vulnerable to speaking negatively about people and/or circumstances?
3. What will you do to guard yourself in these vulnerable moments and use your words to build up, encourage and support others?
4. Words towards others is important, but also important are the words you tell yourself. Identify 2-3 ways you will speak kindly and encourage yourself this week.
5. How does your Jesus-given identity influence your talking, your tone, and your motivation when sharing with others?
