The Jungle Theater presents Pulitzer Prize-winning comedy classic
You Can’t Take It With You
June 19-August 9

“A lot of shows can make you laugh. What’s rare is a play that makes you beam from curtain to curtain….’You Can’t Take It With You’ is one of the most persuasive works of pure escapism in Broadway history.”
~ New York Times

(MINNEAPOLIS; May 14, 2015) – Summer brings a Pulitzer Prize-winning play to the stage with Gary Gisselman making his directorial debut at the Jungle. Hilarious and heartwarming, Kaufman and Hart’s YOU CAN’T TAKE IT WITH YOU opens June 19 at the Jungle Theater, 2951 Lyndale Av. S. in Minneapolis, and runs through August 9.

This affectionate farce about family, love and what really matters in life boasts top-notch talent, including three real-life married couples: Angela Timberman and Jay Albright, Charity Jones and John Middleton, and Cathleen and Nathaniel Fuller. The all-star cast also features Raye Birk, Allen Hamilton, Hugh Kennedy, Wendy Lehr, Gabriel Murphy, Elisa Pluhar, Peter Lincoln Rusk, Anna Sundberg, Julia Valen and Max Wojtanowicz.

Long before TV’s Modern Family, there were the Sycamores, three generations living under one roof on New York’s Upper West Side, determined to follow their bliss. After daughter Alice (Anna Sundberg) accepts straight-laced Tony Kirby’s (Hugh Kennedy) marriage proposal, she must introduce her fiancé’s prim-and-proper parents to her rather more eccentric relatives.
When the wildly different families meet, the worlds of the wealthy, uptight Kirbys and the offkilter Sycamores collide. Universal and timeless, You Can’t Take It With You is one of America’s most beloved comedy classics.

In addition to Gisselman, the production’s creative team includes Tom Butsch (set designer), Amelia Cheever (costume designer), Donald Darnutzer (lighting designer), Montana
Johnson (sound designer) and John Stillwell (technical director).
