

JUNGLE THEATER

CONTACT

Carly Caputa
Marketing Manager at Jungle Theater
ccaputa@jungletheater.org | 262.389.2356

LynLake Street Art Series | Celebration of our community's arts

When: August 7 & 8, 2021
Where: Live performances behind Jungle Theater
2940 Garfield Ave, Minneapolis, MN 55408
Tickets: Free
Information: www.lynlakestreetart.com/

Legacy Glassworks, LynLake Business Association and The Jungle team up to host the LynLake Street Art Series, Running August 7-8

(MINNEAPOLIS; June 29, 2021) – The LynLake Street Art Series returns for its third year bigger than ever. Spanning the weekend of August 7, this celebration of LynLake's art scene will feature over 60 local and nationally acclaimed muralists; live performances and lighting displays; local food and drink specials; and more.

Legacy Glassworks has put together an all-star roster of local and national muralists, who will create original murals on businesses and walls spread across the commercial corridor. The list will include returning favorites such as Wundr, Biafra, and Groe, as well as newcomers to the festival Eros, Limpio, and many more. The weekend will also feature a number of nationally renowned artists such as Miss Merlot, Aerub, and MFK Crew. The public is invited to come watch the street art painting process by visiting artists throughout the weekend.

In addition to the muralists, the parking lot behind the Jungle Theater will be offering a wide variety of other entertainment options, including glass blowing demonstrations, outreach from Sprayfinger, food trucks, and a festival stage for live performances. These performances will span all day and showcase local organizations and Jungle artists, such as Yoga from 612 Jungle, live dance from Ragamala Dance Company, comedy from HUGE Improv and The Shrieking Harpies, music from Lifting a Finger and a special live performance of Jungle's next Serial project Words + Music, including work from Isabella Star LaBlanc, Michael Hanna, Saymoukda Vongsay, Mayda Miller, Dameun Strange, and Keno Evol. Saturday evening will conclude with a special light display on the theater from Lighting Designer Karin Olson.

In addition to the festivities, local businesses will be offering a variety of food and drink specials, as well as free parking on Saturday in the Garfield Lot located behind the Jungle Theater. Hosted by Legacy Glassworks, the LynLake Business Association, and the Jungle Theater, this festival invites our community to come together to celebrate the vibrant community of LynLake.

About the LynLake Neighborhood:

Known for our large-scale murals, theaters and galleries, bars and restaurants with rooftop and street-level patios, salons and wellness services, vintage and specialty retail stores, in LynLake you can get inked, pierced, blown out (and your dog), fitted, fit, waxed, cracked, needled, caffeinated and lasered.

<https://www.lynlakestreetart.com/about>