Do you want to do something more fulfilling? Agape Street Ministry, a women's catholic ministry reaching out to women involved in prostitution is looking for volunteers (men, women, young adults) to join their Vancouver, Surrey and Chilliwack teams.

You are the person if you:

- are 19 years of age;
- have two – three to spend each week; and
- have the passion to tell our less fortunate sisters that "Jesus loves them".

For more information please call Sharmila on 778 552 5202 or email s.gracieuse@yahoo.com.

Tues., Apr. 4th – You are not Alone! Coping Strategies for Baby Blues/Post Partum Depression & Anxiety

Giving birth in the next few months or have you given birth recently? Do you sometimes feel anxious or think you might be depressed or worry your spouse might be? Have you suffered through infant loss and are pregnant again or recently had a baby? Feeling lonely and need of support?

This seminar will go over signs and symptoms of perinatal and post partum anxiety and depression. Pregnant couples, new parents, supporters and family members are encouraged to attend. All are welcome!

February 26 – 8th Sunday of Ordinary Time

“You cannot serve God and wealth.” When we put our trust only in the at-risk things of this world, like our bank accounts, or investments, we are extremely vulnerable to worry. Money can master us if we neglect to remember that God’s care for us is beyond any worldly financial limits. In today’s Gospel Jesus places before us a bit of a dilemma. God should be at the centre of our lives, yet we still need money, so how do we deal with this dilemma? The answer is to have our faith and our finances working together, by seeking first God’s Kingdom, putting God first in how we share, save and spend our wealth, and then trusting God. Living this way frees us from worrying. Trusting in God’s providence is also one way we strengthen our relationship with Him – “all these things will be given to you as well”. (Matthew 6:3)
