Caldwell Dining Pte Ltd was established in May 2015 as a partnership between H Dining Concepts Malaysia and Australian chef Sam Aisbett. Caldwell Dining's objective is to establish itself as a restaurant group in Singapore, operating outlets that cater to everyone's food and beverage needs.

Caldwell Dining's first project is Whitegrass Restaurant which opened on the 27th January 2016. It is located in one of the oldest historical sites in Singapore, Caldwell House in the Chijmes complex, and is quite a spectacular site to see. Whitegrass aims to bring fine dining food and service to Singapore, in an environment that is welcoming, fun and friendly.

Sam Aisbett is part of a new generation of chefs who are transforming the notions of Modern Australian food with his flavour-driven approach to international ingredients with a distinctly Asian touch. Whitegrass is a true reflection of Aisbett's personality and pursuit of perfection to create an alternative and dynamic dining experience.

Sam's style of food is elegant, simplistic, fine dining dishes influenced by flavours of the world. Not wanting to be boxed into a particular cuisine category, Sam takes inspiration from all flavours whether that be Thai, Chinese, French, Japanese and puts his own unique twist on the original flavours.

Guests can choose from a three, four or five course menu, which meld native Australian ingredients, Japanese influences and Aisbett's refreshing fascination with local produce. Aisbett's inclination to fundamental culinary techniques, where everything from pickling to fermentation is done in-house, reflects his back-to-basics culinary approach and down-to-earth nature.
