THE SACRAMENTS

Confirmation Mass Today @ 3pm

A very warm welcome to our 60 young people who will receive the Sacrament of Confirmation at the parish Mass at 3pm, Sunday 8th October. A huge welcome to their families, friends, sponsors and the parish catechetical team who have supported them on their journey. We are very pleased that Bishop Paul Hendricks joins us this afternoon to administer this key Sacrament of initiation which will bestow upon them, the gifts and fruits of the Holy Spirit. As they move into adulthood, we pray, with every confidence that the armour of Christ, will fit them for both joy and challenge knowing they are called by name and loved with an everlasting love.

Prisoner

Sunday

Today starts the week of prayer for prisoners and their dependants.

Wrongdoing, demands justice and this is often dispensed by custody – prison. But more than that, it creates victims across the board, not only those harmed by the prisoner's wrongful act, but their own family members. They are thrown into turmoil at every level and this includes, partners, children and extended family. Today, we pray for the recovery of prisoners, for conversion of heart, help for their families, for compassionate and forgiving communities and for the agency services that support prisoners like PACT. <https://www.prisonadvice.org.uk>

FOR EVERYONE

World Mission
