Fr. Michael

May, I, on behalf of my brother Priests and Deacon thank you all for your kind gifts, cards and offerings over this Christmas period. May I also say a big thank you to those involved in preparing the Parish and the Church for the Holy Season celebrations. You will have noticed that the Church was beautifully clean and festively decorated with lovely flower displays. Many different ministries were involved in Liturgy, before after and during making our parish one of joy and welcome for Mass-goers and those who joined us over the internet. It was especially good to see our young people back from university and college together with visiting family members. Today, on this, the Feast of the Holy Family and as we enter the new year, we wish you all every joy and blessing.

To their families and friends and the communities who mourn them, we offer our deepest sympathies together with our prayers and support.

As the year draws to a close, we will be bringing to prayer our many parishioners who have passed away in 2017,. If you have a close family member who died this year, either here or abroad or whose funeral took place elsewhere, please let us have the name and surname in printed form by 7pm tonight. We will aim to add their names to the list we intend to read out during our Adoration & Devotions of Sun 31st Dec at 10pm which then takes us into midnight Mass for New Year's Day, 1st January 2018.

After the 9.15am Mass next Sunday 7th January

The children will be looking at the Visit of the Three Wise Men. All children and their parents are invited!

Many thanks to those who provided 'shoe box' presents for the homeless and vulnerable guests who went to St Mildred's for lunch on Christmas Day.

We would really like to hear your ideas for future projects so please email us or come along to our next meeting . All women in the parish are welcome.
