A very warm welcome to the children, their parents, friends and families. The specialness of Receiving Jesus in Holy Communion, is a celebration of great happiness. We thank the parents, school and parish catechists for preparing the children for this wonderful Sacrament. It's an important home-school-parish partnership bound by prayer. Many thanks for all the efforts and collaboration resulting in this joyful day.

PMC (Parish Maintenance Committee)

We welcomed a good number to our first meeting last Sunday. Thank you to those who came along/contributed. More people, particularly with practical skills are still needed. Download the form from the web site or collect from the back of the Church. Next meeting is 1 Jul, but we will appeal for more members at the end of Sunday Masses next week.

Parish summer socials

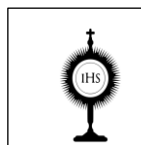

These are on the agenda for the PPC, but in the meantime, we would welcome your suggestions about where to go for our coach trips. We've been to popular beaches like Eastbourne. Have you a different idea? Let the clergy know

New Kneelers (repaired)

We are pleased to say that we have upholstered the padding on our most worn kneelers. We hope that if you are able to kneel that this will make it easier.

Coming soon !

The Image of Our Lady of Guadalupe will be with us Fri 22 Jun to Tue 26 Jun inclusive. This is an unmissable time of blessing with the Mother of the Church. Hold the dates, bring a friend and join us! More news and announcements next week.

For those who have died in our parish family, and those with an anniversary, we pray that they may all rest in peace and rise in glory.

We assure the family and friends of Maria COLLINS RiP, (Thu 21 Jun at St. Mary's) of our love, prayers and support.

Our condolences to Michael whose wife Odette CACHIA RiP passed away this week. We offer our love, prayers and support to Michael and his family.

For those who mourn, may the Lord, comfort and console them.
