

My Guarantee to You

Below is my personal guarantee to you...

100% Satisfaction Guaranteed!

I'm so committed to meeting your sales goal in a professional, friendly & cooperative manner that I'm willing to put my guarantee in writing. A lot of people are willing to talk about everything they offer & what they're going to do, but few will give you an advance copy of their marketing plan and allow you to follow along and speak up when things aren't met in a timely manner. I do what I say I will and make no excuses.

How my guarantee works:

At the time I list your home I'll have a written marketing plan with check boxes. Each item on the plan has a time commitment to be met. I'll complete each item as stated in the plan within the time frame & if I do not, you have two options; cancel the listing agreement or advise me of your dissatisfaction and ask for me to revise the plan. It really is that simple. If I don't perform as I said I would, you choose an option below:

- Advise me that you're not satisfied & request a revision of the marketing plan
- Cancel our listing agreement with no strings attached & no fees charged to you.

No asterisk, No fine print. That's it. This is the way integrity should work... isn't it?
