Events coming up...

Lectio Divina Group, meeting every Monday at 6.30-7.15pm in the Catholic Chapel, an opportunity to learn how to reflect, meditate, contemplate and be transformed by the Word of God.

Soulfood. On Wednesday 15 Nov., we welcome Claire Plasom-Scott, a former student of Lancaster University, who will be speaking on the theme of Building the Culture of Life at 7pm in the Catholic Flat.

Breakfast Club, a weekly initiative run by students, beginning with a short time of prayer in the Chapel at 8am on Thursday morning, followed by a cooked breakfast in the Flat and time together. The perfect way to begin a Thursday morning!

Retreat to Ampleforth Abbey, from the evening of Friday 1 December to Sunday 3 December – a beautiful Abbey run by the Benedictine Monks, situated in the beautiful North Yorkshire Moors. There are still 6 places available for this Retreat, at £40 per person (all food and accommodation included). Please put your names on the list at the back of the chapel.

Remembering the Dead in November. There is a Book for the Dead at the back of the Church where you can write the names of your friends and family who have died. The Book will be laid before the altar at the celebration of Mass so that they can be remembered through November. Today is Remembrance Sunday, a day in which we mark all those who have died in war. We are very grateful to Henry Lay who will play the last post on the trumpet.

Medjugorje Youth Festival – students from Scotland and the north of England are joining 50,000 young people from around the world at the Youth Festival next summer in Medjugorje. If you would like to join this pilgrimage with Fr Philip, please book online as soon as possible at www.aglowpilgrimages.com/youthfest18 - seven nights in 3* hotel, with breakfast & dinner included, airport transfers, and experienced guide.
