 Dr. Dianne B. Collard

The collage of photos above are a combination of family holiday activities and the ArtsCharlotte Gathering that occurred in December. It was a very full month of both preparation and celebration. I'm so grateful for the ArtsCharlotte Core Team, for the artists who participated, and for our family!

ArtsCharlotte continues to expand and work towards our goal of "nurturing the soul of our city through the arts." Our various "communities"—Performing Arts, Visual Arts and Writers—are meeting and we're planning collaborative events as well. Also, we're engaging in the many artistic venues and activities of the Charlotte region. Please pray for direction, funding and creative ideas for the future.

February 15-19 I will be speaking, meeting with people, doing radio interviews and enjoying the wonderful fellowship of Epiclesis Church in the Sacramento, CA area. I'm blessed to be supported by this outstanding church, led by Dr. Chris Alford. Check their website for more information about when and where I'll be speaking. Pray that this will be a powerful time of ministry.

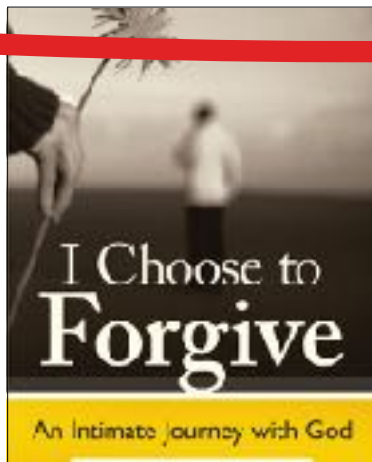

Culture Care Summit

Glenn and I will attend the Culture Care Summit at the Brehm Center of Fuller Seminary in Pasadena next month. It is still possible to register to attend any or all of it. The dates are 8-12 February.

Mako Fujimura, the Director of the Brehm Center, is serving as the Executive Producer of the "I Choose to Forgive" film project. He will interview me on Friday, (2/10) in the general session. This is the official "launch" of the film project and will be followed by a concerted effort to raise the needed funds to do this project.

Our country and our world desperately need to know the power of forgiveness and reconciliation. May God use this film for this purpose and to His glory.
