1 "ABSTRACTION" NAMED AS A FINALIST

3 FILMMAKERS Q&A

2 FOUR SHOWINGS WERE WELL RECEIVED

4 TRINITY CHURCH EVENT

HEARTLAND FILM FESTIVAL, INDIANAPOLIS

The experience at the Heartland Film Festival was a once-in-a-lifetime one for Glenn and I. To have our film, Abstraction, be selected as one of the five finalists in the "Documentary Short" category was remarkable. Besides the festival events, four showings of our film, interviews, and filmmaker Q&As, we had two speaking events and multiple meetings with individuals while we were there. EVERY day there was an opportunity to listen to the pain and struggles of hurting people and apply God's hope and grace to their lives. If you want to know more, check out my daily Facebook reports. What's next? The film will be entered into more festivals (probably for the next 6-12 months) before being released to the public. BUT—we have the right to show it at events where we are speaking—so contact us!

Decisions are being made as to the best way to proceed in using this film as a launching pad for a powerful ministry concerning forgiveness, the power of abstract art, culture care and more. Stay tuned!

PRAYER & PRAISE

- * Praise: The expanded version of "I Choose to Forgive" is ready for submission to Cascade books. (Thanks to the help of Kirsten Herman.)
- * Pray: Our cabin will sell this month.
- * Pray: My voice returns to normal. I strained it badly talking at the events in Indianapolis with bronchitis/laryngitis.
- * Pray: Decisions about how to proceed as a follow-up to the film.
- * Praise: Numerous opportunities for significant ministry during the festival.
- * Pray: Our financial needs will be met through a ministry position for Glenn and/or more ministry support.
- * Thank God for His many blessings!
