Malmo Plains Community League Annual General Meeting upcoming, Executive Board spots available Tuesday, April 19 at 8pm in Malmo Hall

By Murray Whitby, Malmo Community League President

Malmo Plains Community League will hold its Annual General Meeting (AGM) on Tuesday, April 19, beginning at 8:00 p.m. in the Malmo Hall.

The main business of the meeting will be to hear the President's annual report, review the annual financial statements, and elect the League's Executive Board for the 2016-2017 fiscal year.

All League members are strongly encouraged to come out. Some of the League's most important business, including electing its leadership for the next year, will be discussed and decided. The coming year will be crucial for the future of the League and the community.

Members are eligible to nominate candidates, stand for election, and vote in the elections for the Executive Board.

The current Treasurer will be stepping down at the end of this fiscal year, so anyone interested in joining the Executive Board in this capacity is especially invited to attend.

City Spring Programs Gearing up

Michael Goth, Community Recreation Coordinator

Bike Safety Programs

The city will be partnering with communities to run bike safety courses again. Aspen Gardens, southwest of Malmo, is hosting the closest program, on Saturday May 14 from 1-4pm. There will be sessions for all ages.

City Summer Daycamps

Registrations for all city summer daycamps are now open. Program guides are available at elementary schools, public libraries, city recreation centres and pools, as well as online at edmonton.ca/daycamps or by calling 311. Malmo is hosting A Taste of Camp over Aug. 8-12. It runs 9am-4pm for ages 6-9.

Easter Eggs for All

Dozens of families came out for the 2nd Annual Malmo Egg Hunt on Saturday, March 26. There was plenty of Easter fun on hand as children scoured the playground for plastic eggs, which they exchanged for chocolates and small prizes. There was also a petting zoo with bunnies and baby chicks. A lovely time was had by all.
