Balloon madness takes over at the Winter Carnival

Easter Event Needs Volunteers!

The next community event is our annual Easter Egg hunt. Social coordinator, Amanda Prentice, is unable to be there to run the event, so we are looking for volunteers to help with both organizing and running all the fun. The Egg Hunt is scheduled March 31 from 10 to 12. Bonus, the petting zoo is already booked so that's less work for you. A big thank you to Amanda Prentice for putting together the winter carnival. The whole hall was hopping and popping.

Crossing Guard Volunteer Opportunity

Currently, Robert Davidson, featured in a CBC article in December, <http://www.cbc.ca/news/canada/edmonton/crosswalk-guard-grandpa-edmonton-school-zone-1.4454511>, volunteers as a crossing guard to help children walking to school cross the intersection of 51st and Malmo Road. As Robert doesn't live in the area it is difficult for him to make it every day. Amy Davidson would like other residents to consider volunteering to help Malmo children arrive at school safely.

More Winter Green Shack!

The Malmo Green Shack will run on Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday from March 3 to March 30. Weekdays hours are from 3:30-6:00; Saturday hours are from 1:00-5:00. The drop-in program is free and includes a wide variety of winter fun for ages six to twelve, including games, crafts, sports, and more. Come check it out!
