1. Conduct of Your claim

- 1.1. By signing and returning this agreement (or a copy of it) to Us, You have instructed Us to provide Claims Management Services to You.
- 1.2. The extent to which We carry out each of the Claims Management Services will depend on the merits of Your Claim and We have no obligation to carry out a particular Claims Management Service if We reasonably believe that a Claim, at any time, has no reasonable prospect of success.
- 1.3. You agree that We have the exclusive right to deal with and provide Claims Management Services to You in respect of any further Claim(s) (an "Additional Claim") which may come to Our attention when dealing with a particular Claim.
- 1.4. We will conduct any Additional Claim on the terms of this agreement.
- 1.5. We will exercise reasonable care and skill in carrying out Claims Management Services for You.
- 1.6. Following compliance by You with clause 2.1.1 We will make an initial assessment of the prospects of a Claim being successful and, following that initial assessment:
 - 1.6.1. if We form the view that a Claim does not have reasonable prospects of success then We will let You know why We have formed such a view and may at that point terminate this agreement by written notice to You;
 - 1.6.2. if We need further information to establish whether a Claim has reasonable prospects of success We will let You know what further information We require; or,
 - 1.6.3. if We believe that a Claim has reasonable prospects of success, We will let You know what subsequent action We will take in respect of that Claim.
- 1.7. If We form a view in accordance with clause 1.6.3 then We will prepare the Claim for Submission (subject to any further information which We may require) to the relevant body who will deal with the Claim.
- 1.8. Once the draft submission is prepared We will send this to You for Your review and comments following which We will take into account any further comments You have and amend the submission accordingly (if reasonable to do so) and/or submit the Claim to the relevant body on Your instruction as the case may be.
- 1.9. Once We have submitted the Claim We will take such action as We consider reasonably necessary to progress the Claim and will keep You informed of the progress of the Claim at reasonable intervals.
- 1.10. If, during the course of conducting a Claim it becomes apparent, advisable or necessary that court or other legal proceedings should or must be commenced then these proceedings will be the subject of a separate agreement between You and Us.

For the avoidance of doubt this clause does not oblige You to enter into a new agreement with Us or to participate in such proceedings in those circumstances. It is Your choice whether You do so. If You choose not to do so then:

- a. this agreement will continue in force to allow a reasonable time (from the date on which You give written notice to Us that You do not wish to be a party to any court or similar proceedings) for Us to consider any alternative steps We could take to progress Your Claim;
- b. if We come to the conclusion (acting reasonably) that there is another reasonable step that We could take to progress Your Claim, then We will inform You in writing of what that step is and continue to progress Your Claim in that alternative way;
- c. if We come to the conclusion (acting reasonably) that there is no other reasonable step that We could take, then either We or You can immediately terminate this agreement by giving written notice to the other. If it is so terminated, no Fee will be payable by You but any Expenses which We have incurred will be payable by You within 14 days of termination;
- d. If We have not notified You that there is an alternative way to progress Your Claim within 6 months of You informing Us that You do not wish to be a party to court or similar proceedings, then this agreement will automatically terminate at the expiry of that 6 month period. This termination will be without prejudice to either party's rights of action against the other for a prior breach of it.

- 1.11. At the conclusion of a Claim, We will return any Materials to You which You have provided to Us, save for those which We are required or may by law, regulation, guidance or procedure retain.
- 1.12. If You wish to make a complaint about any service We have provided to You please follow the complaints process provided to You.
- 1.13. Subject to clause 6.3, it is agreed that We may engage agents ("Third Party Agents") to provide or assist with any Claims Management Services at Our sole discretion.

2. Your obligations to Us

- 2.1. You are obliged to:
 - 2.1.1. provide Us, within 20 working days of signing and returning this agreement to Us, with all Materials (or authentic copies of Materials) which You have in Your possession or control;
 - 2.1.2. throughout the period during which We provide Claims Management Services to You, provide Us with any further Materials which come into Your knowledge, possession or control within a reasonable time of becoming aware of them;
 - 2.1.3. provide Us with all reasonable assistance in acquiring any Materials held by a third party in relation to a Claim;

- 2.1.5. throughout the period during which We provide Claims Management Services to You, reply truthfully, fully and accurately to the best of Your knowledge and belief to any enquiry which We raise with You;

- 2.1.7. immediately notify Us in writing if You receive any correspondence directly from any third party in connection with a Claim which We are dealing with; and,
- 2.1.8. provide Us with Your bank details to which any net Recovery monies are to be sent (subject to the provisions of clause 3 and clause 4).

3. Fees and Payment

- 3.2. If We receive the Recovery monies direct from the payee then You agree that We can deduct and retain any sums due to Us from You (including but not limited to the Recovery Fee and any Expenses and whether or not the monies due relate to the Claim in respect of which the monies are received) before remitting the balance to You.
- 3.3. You agree that any Provider paying a Recovery in cash is authorised, now and in the future, to make such payment to Our client account as notified in writing to You from time to time and that You will provide Us with the necessary authority upon request and upon any assignment in accordance with clause 6 for this to occur.
- 3.4. If the Recovery is sent to You, to Your pension provider or to a third party, by the payee then You agree to pay to Us, within 7 days of the issue of an invoice to You in respect of a Claim, the outstanding balance of Our invoice.
- 3.5. We agree that, if no Recovery is made in respect of a Claim (and this agreement has not been terminated by Us or You), then You are not obliged to pay to Us a Recovery Fee in respect of that Claim. For the avoidance of doubt, the absence of Your liability to pay to Us a Recovery Fee in respect of that Claim does not absolve You from liability to pay to Us a Recovery Fee in respect of any other Claim in which a Recovery is made.
- 3.6. We reserve the right to request payment on account from You before incurring any Expense(s). If no payment on account is received within 21 days following a request then:
 - 3.6.1. this agreement will continue in force to allow a reasonable time for Us to consider any alternative steps We could take to progress Your Claim;
 - 3.6.2. if We come to the conclusion (acting reasonably) that there is another reasonable step that We could take to progress Your Claim, then We will as soon as reasonably possible inform You in writing of what that step is and continue to progress Your Claim in that way;

- 3.6.3. if We come to the conclusion (acting reasonably) that there is no other reasonable step that We could take, then, with Your written agreement (including email) (such agreement not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed), We may (but are not obliged to) pay the Expense(s) and, if Your Claim is successful, You agree that We can recover any such Expense(s) out of the Recovery in accordance with clause 3.
- 3.6.4. If We do not agree to pay the Expense(s) in accordance with clause 3.6.3.6.3 then either We or You can immediately terminate this agreement by giving written notice to the other. If it is so terminated, no Fee will be payable by You but any Expense(s) which We have incurred will be payable by You within 14 days of termination;
- 3.6.5. if We do not notify You of any alternative way to progress Your Claim within 6 months of this agreement continuing in force in accordance with clause 3.6.1, then this agreement will automatically terminate at the expiry of that 6 month period. This termination will be without prejudice to either party's rights of action against the other for a prior breach of this agreement.
- 3.7. By way of a typical example only, an illustration of a calculation of a Recovery Fee is provided in Schedule 1.
- 3.8. Any payment under this agreement not made by its due date shall attract interest at the rate of 4% per annum above the base rate of Barclays Bank plc (both before and after any judgment).
- 3.9. In the event that any payment is not made in accordance with this agreement, We shall also be entitled to recover from You all proper expenses and costs incurred in securing payment, including but not limited to the cost of engaging a debt collection agency and the costs of taking legal action to recover the sums owing.

4.3. If the amount of the Fee cannot be agreed then the matter can be referred by You or Us to the President of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of England and Wales to appoint an Accountant to determine the amount of the Fee and whose decision shall, in the absence of manifest error, be final and binding on both parties.

4.4. The Accountant's costs will be borne by the parties equally or in the proportion which the Accountant directs within his sole discretion based on the reasonableness or otherwise of the conduct of the parties in respect of the matters in issue.

4.5. If a referral to the Accountant is made then You agree to pay the Fee to Us within 14 days of the earlier of it being agreed by You and Us or determined by the Accountant.

4.6. Suspension of the agreement

4.6.1. At any time if we consider it reasonable to do so (including if any of the events listed in clauses 4.2.3.1 to 4.2.3.7 occur) and without limiting Our other rights or remedies under this agreement, We may suspend provision of any or all of the Claims Management Services and/or Our other obligations under this agreement on giving You at least 7 days' written notice (a "Suspension Notice") until such time from when We give You written notice that the suspension has been lifted (a "Reinstatement Notice").

- 5.1. If We have a good reason for doing so (acting reasonably) We may vary or change the terms of this agreement by giving You at least 21 days' notice in writing and if the variation or change is material We will seek Your consent to the change before it is binding (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed). Such consent will be deemed to be given if You continue to instruct Us in relation to a Claim for more than 21 days after receiving notice of the variation or change from Us.
