

About Curio

Curio is a neighborhood spot in a community market that has a drink for everyone. Curio's home is the Denver Central Market in RiNo. We are the center hub of the communal area, so we have a huge role in making people feel at home and setting the tone for their experience. Hospitality is our main focus. We hope to become a neighborhood favorite and the best spot to meet friends, family, or a date.

Curio bar is owned by husband-wife duo Stephen Julia & Katsumi Yuso Ruiz and industry veteran Stuart Jensen.

Winter Menu

Our winter menu has some amazing, cold-defying classic cocktails ...

Old Fashioned- Made with our house spiced bitters –Tastes like boozy Christmas with a touch of spice just perfect for the season

Lion's Tail- Is another great classic that will warm you from the inside out ... Imagine if a key lime pie and mulled wine had a bourbon baby

Napoleon- An industry favorite with a touch of fragrant orange and mild bitterness balanced perfectly by its gin base

Vieux Carre- It's almost time for Fat Tuesday and no one does it better than New Orleans. We've adopted this Hotel Monteleone invention for the season and you won't regret trying it

Bees Knees- We enhanced ours with our house lavender chamomile bitters ... the result is the most amazing night cap!

El Diablo- It isn't a complete story without a villain ... El diablo with its deep hot pink flare, and earthy roots of tequila and ginger beer is definitely a winner.

CURIO COCKTAILS – Boozy is the new " ... "

Our inspiration for this winter was boozy, heartwarming drinks that will make you smile even on the coldest day

Bitter Love- Armagnac, Montenegro, Cynar, Chamomile Grappa -Perfect for the Anti-valentine supporter – For all you bitter souls, drink your hearts out

Bourbon on the Rose- Our take on a whiskey sour: bourbon, Capelletti, lemon juice, house root beer bitters -A guest favorite and one of two cocktails that survived our winter transition

Scarlett Fever – mezcal, tequila, lemon juice, ginger syrup & beet juice -This smoky drink will soothe your fever – Drs. be aware

Fancypants- You aren't at Curio if you can't spy someone drinking a Fancypants – This sisterhood of the always changing popping pearls cocktails is another one favored by our guests – Easy, breezy, refreshing ... stupid good

Crazy Monkey- Rum, Banana, Dubonnet, coffee – Rich and boozy, a rum drink for whiskey lovers

Cat & Barrel- Old Tom gin, Madeira, Bruto Americano, Spiced Pear Brandy, Almond Grappa spritz – Warming with ripe undertones-a Manhattan lover's choice
