

EXPLORE YOUR LOCAL HISTORY ON THE WEB:

LOUDOUN History on the Web:

www.loudounhistory.org. Great Loudoun history! Colonial days, the Revolution, slavery, the Civil War, Reconstruction, the railroad days, and even our Civil Rights struggles are all here. Has a very useful index.

www.hallowedground.org This is the Journey Through Hallowed Ground web site, which tells a great deal about our local historical sites and their stories.

LOUDOUN IN THE CIVIL WAR—see the sites listed above and:

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Loudoun_County_in_the_American_Civil_War This is the Wikipedia entry on Loudoun and the Civil War by Loudoun's Steve Meserve, who wrote the latest book on Loudoun in the Civil War.

www.mosbyheritagearea.org This is the website of the Mosby Heritage Area Association that sponsors your classroom program. See the many programs we have coming up and the many driving tours you and your family can take. And take the interactive Mosby tour!

<http://www.visitloudoun.org/trip-ideas/civil-war> This site introduces the Civil War experience and landscape of Loudoun through photos, chronology, articles, panoramas, and event listings. Don't miss this one!

LOUDOUN SLAVERY and AFRICAN-AMERICAN HISTORY—See the sites listed above and:

A TIMELINE OF AFRICAN-AMERICAN HISTORY IN LOUDOUN--

<http://www.loudounhistory.org/history/african-american-chronology.htm> This timeline takes you from colonial days right up to the present time and gives a great sense of the African-American experience in the Mosby Heritage Area

AFRICAN-AMERICAN HISTORY DOCUMENTS FROM LOUDOUN—

<http://www.balchfriends.org/Glimpse/EssUnderstanding.htm> This mix of national and local documents are a fantastic way to see black history in our area.

THE UNDERGROUND RAILROAD JUST FOR KIDS--

<http://www.socialstudiesforkids.com/subjects/undergroundrailroad.htm>

This site has great links to all kinds of websites on the Underground Railroad.

FAUQUIER History on the Web:

www.fauquiercounty.gov Search keyword historical sites to bring up information page and more links.

www.fauquierhistory.com Website of the Fauquier Historical Society.

www.hallowedground.org Journey Through Hallowed Ground National Heritage Area website which tells a great deal about our local historical sites and their stories.

FAUQUIER COUNTY IN THE CIVIL WAR—See the sites above and:

www.fauquierchamber.org Click on Visitor's Guide to see a list of Civil War sites to visit in Fauquier County.

www.civilwarhome.com/mosbybio.htm This site gives you a biography of John Singleton Mosby. The biography page link at the bottom takes you to a site containing other biographies of Civil War figures.

www.virginiacivilwar.org The Commonwealth of Virginia's Civil War Sesquicentennial (150th Anniversary) website. "Then and Now" shows each county's wartime experience and what is going on there today.

www.mosbyheritagearea.org Website of the Mosby Heritage Area Association. History, photo gallery, education programs, driving tours, publications and more. You can download a Fauquier Scavenger Hunt, or an interactive Mosby map and tour!

Slavery and African-American History in Fauquier www.aaheritageva.org Website of the African-American Historical Association of Fauquier County. Information and links to learn about Fauquier County's African-American past.

www.socialstudiesforkids.com/subjects/undergroundrailroad.htm Great information and links to all kinds of sites on the Underground Railroad. Fauquier County was in the path of this slave escape route.

CLARKE County History ON THE WEB:

www.clarkehistory.org The web site of the Clarke County Historical Association is essential to understanding Clarke's history. It has a superb photography collection fun to use with students.

www.mosbyheritagearea.org The web site of the Mosby Heritage Area Association has a variety of history tools and photos to use, including a downloadable Historic Clarke County Scavenger Hunt for students and their families.

PRINCE WILLIAM County History ON THE WEB:

www.princewilliamcounty.com/16/history.asp This site provides a history of Prince William County and of its towns and adjoining cities, plus a "links" button to Prince William's various historic sites, organizations, and archives.

www.historicprincewilliam.org has links to a number of short articles on Prince William's history.

WARREN County History ON THE WEB:

www.warrencountyva.net/about.asp This site provides a short history of Warren County.

www.warrenhs.org, the Warren Heritage Society's web site, allows you access to records and links to key Warren County historic sites.