Brinton Lindsey

A transplant from Jupiter, Florida, Brinton Lindsey (guitar) and his wife recently moved to Franklin, Tennessee, to pursue their passion of creating music together. Brinton has been teaching guitar and working in the music industry professionally for four years, including working at several studios and playing guitar for worship artists including the Ethan Parker Band.

Brinton is passionate about seeing personal spiritual change flow outward, blessing God and others by way of worshipping through music.

“I count it a huge blessing to have the gift of music so I can connect with God and worship him in that way,” Brinton says. “I am passionate about people receiving inner healing and a revelation of our heavenly fathers love for us. Proverbs 4:23 says that everything we do flows from the heart, and when people get a revelation of the father’s love for them, everything changes.”

Brinton encourages his students to find the aspect of music that ignites excitement within them and uses that element to motivate students to push through the barriers and obstacles they encounter while learning their instrument.

“The student who wants to learn new skills in a fun way will excel with me as their mentor. I want my students to feel like they are growing on their instrument while also having fun.”

Brinton holds a Bachelor of Arts in music from Palm Beach Atlantic University. He and his wife are currently writing and recording together and recently released an EP under the name Arrowtide.

Q&A with Brinton

Where do you look for creative inspiration?

I get inspiration being outside in nature. The beauty of creation inspires me to create.

What type of music did you grow up listening to? Is it the same now?

I enjoyed listening to a lot of guitar driven music like classic rock, and hard alternative rock. Now I listen to more singer songwriter music and pop/worship music.

What is your favorite all time movie and why?

Hook. It’s all about adventure and learning how to stay childlike and enjoy life no matter how old you get. Plus, everyone would want to fly if they could!

What is your favorite Bible verse and how does it speak to you?

“I pray that the eyes of your heart may be enlightened in order that you may know the hope to which he has called you, the riches of his glorious inheritance in his holy people, and his incomparably great power for us who believe.” –Ephesians 1:18-19

The verse speaks to me about all the incredible things that we as believers have been given as a result of Christ’s sacrifice for us. Christ gave his life for us so that we could be a people filled with hope, inheritance and power.
