80% of all Proceeds of this donation will go to the Color of Heroes Foundation.
 The Selected Veteran for this Hunt will be Medal of Honor recipient Clinton Romesha. Clint received the honor for risking his life in helping save dozens of his fellow soldiers and organizing a counterattack, with a small force of 52, against more than 300 Taliban fighters during the Battle of Kamdesh in October 2009. This took place in the Hindu Kush Mountains of Afghanistan, along the Pakistan border. Clint wrote the extremely popular book Red Platoon, which goes into much more detail about the battle briefly described here. NOTE: Clint will have no expense whatsoever concerning this hunt. The high bidder will have the satisfaction of knowing they were a contributor to a great cause, as the proceeds from this auction will not only go to provide a great hunting experience, but the monies raised will go to Colors of Heroes for its ongoing programs for veterans.
