Dear dancer and parent or guardian,

We are looking forward to an exciting summer of intensive workshops and hope that you will enjoy the planned programs. The Intensive Workshop day begins at 10:00 am and finishes at 4:30 pm. (One half hour longer than in some previous years.) Dancers should arrive in time to be changed and ready by 10:00 am. They should bring their dance bags and other personal items into their assigned studio with them. Dancers 12 yrs and older that need to arrive earlier due to transportation considerations should wait quietly in the lobby until they need to prepare for class. Dancers younger than 12 years must make use of daycare provided for camp participants. Students should not enter the studio room until the teacher is present.

Dancers should wear a solid color leotard with pink tights and pink ballet slippers. A black camisole leotard and black tights may also be needed for performance. Appropriate shoes for jazz are required for the weeks that include jazz class. Dancers will be given short breaks during the morning and afternoon and a lunch break. Please be sure to bring plenty of water and a healthy lunch. We cannot provide refrigeration, so lunch should be packed in a cooler. Workshop participants under the age of 16 will not be allowed to leave the studio area during workshop hours until they are released to a parent.

An approximate schedule for the workshop day, Monday through Thursday, is included. Friday's schedule will vary so that dancers have time to take class and rehearse for their performance. Full workshop participants for the workshops Week 1 and 3 will perform on Fridays at 6:00 pm at Mitchell Hall on the University of Delaware campus. Workshop dancers will be driven to Mitchell Hall, which is less than a mile from the studio, by bus or by private car. Mitchell Hall is located on the intersection of Amstel and South College Avenues. Parking is available at meters on local streets. The performances are free and open to the public. Doors to the theatre will open at 5:45pm. Please arrive accordingly. Performance venues for Week 2 and August workshops will be determined later.

A copy of your registration has been mailed. Payment in full for each workshop is due 7 days before the first day of the workshop. Please print, complete, and return an Emergency Health Form with your final payment.

We are looking forward to a productive summer of dance and to seeing each of you.

Sincerely,
Sunshine Webster-Latshaw
