

ÆPEX Contemporary Performance

Kevin Fitzgerald, Music Director · Garrett Schumann, Music Director

SIGHT/SOUND

April 9, 2016 · 4-6 PM
The Ann Arbor Art Center

Program:

Moments, for string trio*

Garrett Schumann (1987-)

Tiffany Kang, violin · Erin Napier, viola · Zan Berry, cello

InTerLuDes, for solo flute*

Spencer Arias (1990-)

Brice Smith, flute

*World Premiere

About ÆPEX Contemporary Performance:

Founded by conductor Kevin Fitzgerald and composer Garrett Schumann, ÆPEX Contemporary Performance is a concert-presenting organization dedicated to bringing the world's best new music to audiences in Ann Arbor and across the community of Southeast Michigan.

Featuring five outstanding concerts, ÆPEX's inaugural season includes six world premieres, daring and thoughtfully crafted programs, as well as appearances by rising stars in the world of American contemporary music.

ÆPEX's leaders are Artistic Director Garrett Schumann, Music Director Kevin Fitzgerald, and Development and Engagement Manager Spencer Arias.

Support ÆPEX:

ÆPEX Contemporary Performance is currently raising funds to support its ambitious second season of new music concerts.

To learn more about ÆPEX's mission and contribute to its fundraising campaign, visit:

aepexcontemporary.org/support

You're Invited!

Following today's concert, please join ÆPEX's directors next door at The Beer Grotto Ann Arbor for an end-of-season celebration!

This event is free and open to the public.