- Whereas: Bell Tower Place has traditionally offered both a-la-carte and to-go dining options to students.
- Whereas: Bell Tower has eliminated the to-go feature and currently only offers buffet-style dining options.
- Whereas: Hundreds of students have publicly voiced concern regarding these recent changes to Bell Tower’s dining policies.
- Whereas: A recent RHA survey found that 91.4% of on-campus students are dissatisfied with the current state of dining.
- Whereas: A change.org petition asking Miami Dining Services to restore Bell Tower Place to its former dining offerings, including a-la-carte and to go options, has been published on the Miami University Associated Student Government Facebook page. The petition garnered 1,006 student signatures after being live for only 24 hours.

Therefore be it resolved: The Miami University Student Senate formally endorses this petition and earnestly requests that Bell Tower Place be restored to an a-la-carte dining location.
