IRVINE, CA--(via Marketwired--Sep. 27, 2016)--Evans Brewing Company (OTCQB: ALES), a southern California based craft beer producer, has been awarded a gold medal and a silver medal by the 2016 World Beer Awards for its Oaklore Brown Ale and Pollen Nation Honey Blonde Ale, respectively, two of the company’s core year-round offerings.

Oaklore Brown Ale was honored in the Dark Beer category as the best American Brown Ale brewed in the United States (<http://www.worldbeerawards.com/evans-brewing-co-oaklore-brown-ale.26249.html>). Pollen Nation Honey Blonde Ale received the silver medal in the Flavored Beer category for the Honey & Maple Flavored style produced in the U.S. (<http://www.worldbeerawards.com/pollen-nation-honey-blonde.26248.html>).

World Beer Awards entrees in eight categories and multiple styles within each category are judged by international jury of experts. Previously, Oaklore Brown Ale and Pollen Nation Honey Blonde both received bronze medals from the 2015 World Beer Awards. For a listing of other awards won by Oaklore and Pollen Nation, please see <http://www.evansbrewco.com/thebeer#beer>.

“We are very pleased that our Oaklore Brown Ale and Pollen Nation Honey Blonde have been recognized by the World Beer Awards,” said Evan Rapport, Chief Operations Officer for Evans Brewing Company. “These have always been two of our most popular beers, and the most recent awards further validate the quality and drinkability of our year-round offerings.”

The company also announced the planned release of two fall beers, “Oktoberfest” (5.3% ABV, 24 IBUs), the company’s Oktoberfest style lager, and “OG Kolsch” (5.2% ABV, 14 IBUs), its Kolsch style ale. Both beers are expected to be available at The Public House, the company’s first branded restaurant, expected to open in the coming weeks in downtown Fullerton, California, as well as in other retail outlets within the company’s distribution footprint. Release dates for Oktoberfest and OG Kolsch will be updated at www.evansbrewco.com.

“We look forward to introducing Oktoberfest and OG Kolsch to craft beer consumers in the coming weeks,” Mr. Rapport commented. “Customers at The Public House will be among the first to have the opportunity to taste these styles as part of the larger selection of Evans Brewing products we will have at the restaurant.”
