The Japanese Congregational Church has served the community for almost 100 years and is located in the central district of Seattle. We have a unique congregation of 30 members and friends and provide services in English and Japanese. The church is becoming a community, multicultural, and primarily English speaking congregation with translation services available. Position to begin in April of 2016.

The minister will report to the board of directors and responsibilities include:

- Weekly services at 10:00 a.m. on Sundays
- Evangelism and outreach to promote membership
- Prayer meetings, bible study and baptism/membership classes as needed
- Pastoral counseling and visitation

Candidate Qualifications:

- Teach the word of God and how to walk and live in it
- Welcoming to all and able to serve a diverse congregation
- Able to lead and develop others to take leadership roles
- Ability to reach out and grow the congregation
- Bilingual Japanese preferred but not required

The starting compensation range is 1,500.00 to 1,800.00 per month. Additional compensation may be negotiated as the membership grows.
