

An inclusive Christian church seeks a dynamic half-time Program Coordinator with training and experience in leadership development and volunteer coordination, together with skills in communication and marketing through traditional and current social media. The Program Coordinator will help leaders expand faith development programs for children through high school and activities for families and single adults. This person will also help promote the church's progressive Mission and Objectives.

For more information see pullmanucc.org or contact Community Congregational U.C.C. at office@pullmanucc.org.

Screening begins December 15, 2016.
