

Lift 1.3 million Californians out of poverty: Prioritize SSI/SSP in the 2017-18 Budget

Since 2009, state budget cuts have forced hardship & poverty on to the 1.3 million Californians who rely on Supplemental Security Income/State Supplemental Payment (SSI/SSP) for basic needs.

Federally, the program now faces potentially devastating threats, including ending SSI's entitlement status by replacing it with a block grant, making state action even more vital.

We ask the Legislature to Restore SSI/SSP Grant Cuts & the COLA

No one on SSI/SSP should be forced to live in poverty. CA4SSI requests that the Legislature restore both the SSP grant cuts and the statutory cost of living adjustment.

The Magnitude of Cuts to SSI/SSP

- Since 2009 the state-funded SSP portion of grants to individuals has been cut from $233 a month to the federal minimum of $156 a month, and for couples from $568 to $396.
- For decades California periodically provided an SSI/SSP COLA until it was repealed in 2009. The 2016-17 budget included a one-time COLA, the only restoration since 2009.

SSI/SSP Cuts Pushed 1 Million People into Poverty

In January 2009 the SSI/SSP grant of $907 per month was worth 100.5 percent of the federal poverty level (FPL) for a single individual that are now $895, worth just 89.7 percent of the FPL.

The High Cost of Low SSI/SSP Grants

The grant cuts and the COLA repeal have pushed recipients into homelessness and hunger, and are a significant reason why we have the highest Supplemental Poverty Measure of any state.

- SSI/SSP recipients increasingly rely on expensive public safety, medical and nursing home services that would not be needed if grants covered basic needs.
- Women, disproportionately Asian, Black, and Latina, are the majority of SSI/SSP recipients.
- California is the only state where SSI/SSP recipients cannot receive food stamps.

Californians for SSI (CA4SSI) is a statewide coalition of over 200 organizations across the aging, disability rights, housing and homeless, anti-hunger and anti-poverty sectors. CA4SSI seeks to ensure that blind, aged and people living with disabilities living on SSI/SSP obtain adequate support to lead their lives with dignity.
