True/False Section

True/false questions are always the easy part of the exam, right? Label the following true or false in a consistent way for two points. All trivia questions they refer to are below.

A. The number of false statements on this list is even.
B. The number of false statements on this list is greater than 4.
C. There are three single-word trivia answers which, when pronounced, sound like two common English words concatenated.
D. Every trivia answer contains an `E' in it.
E. One of the trivia answers will still be a word if spelled backwards.
F. In one of the trivia answers, the only vowel is a `U'.
G. One of the trivia answers is a common English word when you append “sis” to it.
H. One of the trivia answers is closely associated with Santa.
I. Exactly four trivia answers are the names of planets.
J. Statement K is false.
K. Either statements B and J are both true, or they are both false.
L. Either statements G and I are both true, or they are both false.
M. Statement H is true.
N. Exactly one of statements E, G, and J is true.
O. Statement N is true.

Trivia Section

1. This team won at least one NBA championship in the last ten years. (Don’t include “the” or the city name.)
2. Well-known company that makes chocolate and candy.
3. A discontinued brand of car, marketed as “a new kind of car company”.
4. A metallic element that is liquid at room temperature and pressure.
5. During World War II, the crew of the British submarine the HMS Trident received an improbable gift from their Russian allies. This fully-grown animal lived on the submarine for six weeks. She slept under the captain’s bunk and ate one of the submarine’s navigation charts! What type of animal was it?
6. First name of a famous tennis star.
7. This Alfred Hitchcock movie was the first American film to show a toilet being flushed on screen.
8. Netflix superhero show.
True/False Section

Award two points total if all of these are correct. Otherwise no points! There is only one consistent way to fill them in.

- A. The number of false statements on this list is even. – TRUE
- B. The number of false statements on this list is greater than 4. – FALSE
- C. There are three single-word trivia answers which, when pronounced, sound like two common English words concatenated. – TRUE
- D. Every trivia answer contains an 'E' in it. – FALSE
- E. One of the trivia answers will still be a word if spelled backwards. – FALSE
- F. In one of the trivia answers, the only vowel is a 'U'. – TRUE
- G. One of the trivia answers is a common English word when you append "sis" to it. – TRUE
- H. One of the trivia answers is closely associated with Santa. – TRUE
- I. Exactly four trivia answers are the names of planets. – TRUE
- J. Statement K is false. – FALSE
- K. Either statements B and J are both true, or they are both false. – TRUE
- L. Either statements G and I are both true, or they are both false. – TRUE
- M. Statement H is true. – TRUE
- N. Exactly one of statements E, G, and J is true. – TRUE
- O. Statement N is true. – TRUE

Trivia Section

One point for each of these answers, regardless of true/false answers.

1. This team won at least one NBA championship in the last ten years. (Don't include "the" or the city name.) – SPURS
2. Well-known company that makes chocolate and candy. – MARS
3. A discontinued brand of car, marketed as "a new kind of car company". – SATURN
4. A metallic element that is liquid at room temperature and pressure. – MERCURY

5. During World War II, the crew of the British submarine the HMS Trident received an improbable gift from their Russian allies. This fully-grown animal lived on the submarine for six weeks. She slept under the captain's bunk and ate one of the submarine's navigation charts! What type of animal was it? – REINDEER

6. First name of a famous tennis star. – VENUS

7. This Alfred Hitchcock movie was the first American film to show a toilet being flushed on screen. – PSYCHO

8. Netflix superhero show. – DAREDEVIL