ARTHUR CARLOS EVANGELISTA EVANGELISTA LAW OFFICES 685 W 2ND ST SAN BERNARDINO CA 92410	APPLICANT [REDACTED] Notice Type: Approval Notice

This notice is to advise you of action taken on this case. The official notice has been mailed according to the mailing preferences noted on the Form G-28, Notice of Entry of Appearance as Attorney or Accredited Representative. Any relevant documentation was mailed according to the specified mailing preferences.

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) has approved your Application for Provisional Unlawful Presence Waiver, Form I-601A.

USCIS has notified the Department of State's National Visa Center (NVC) of the approval of your provisional unlawful presence waiver application. This completes all USCIS action on this application. If you have any questions about your immigrant visa processing, please contact the NVC directly. The NVC's e-mail address is NVCINQUIRY@state.gov and their telephone number is (603) 334-0700.

The approval of your provisional unlawful presence waiver is subject to the conditions established in Title 8, Code of Federal Regulations (8 CFR), section 212.7(e)(12). Under this regulation, the approval will not take effect until each of these requirements is met:

- . You have left the United States; AND
- . You have appeared at a U.S. Embassy or Consulate for an interview in connection with your application for an immigrant visa based on an approved immediate relative visa petition; AND
- . A U.S. consular officer has determined, in light of the approval of your provisional unlawful presence waiver, that you are otherwise eligible for an immigrant visa based on an approved immediate relative visa petition.

NOTE: The approval of your provisional unlawful presence waiver only covers the grounds of inadmissibility for unlawful presence in the United States under section 212(a)(9)(B)(i)(I) and (II) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA).

A consular officer will determine whether you are subject to any other grounds of inadmissibility and whether you are eligible for an immigrant visa at the time of your visa interview at a U.S. Embassy or consulate. If a consular officer determines that you are inadmissible for any reason other than prior unlawful presence in the United States, this provisional unlawful presence waiver is automatically revoked. As a result, the consular officer may refuse the immigrant visa or you may need to submit to USCIS a separate waiver application (the Form I-601, Application for Waiver of Grounds of Inadmissibility), requesting a waiver for each ground of inadmissibility (if waivable under the current law) that may apply to you including prior unlawful presence under INA section 212(a)(9)(B).

Limitations of Approved Provisional Unlawful Presence Waivers

Approval of your provisional unlawful presence waiver DOES NOT:

- . Address any other grounds of inadmissibility besides unlawful presence; for example criminal grounds, fraud, or prior removals.
- . Change the requirement that you must depart the United States to obtain an immigrant visa at a U.S. Embassy or consulate abroad.
- . Give you any legal immigration status or allow you to obtain a legal status in the United States.

Please see the additional information on the back. You will be notified separately about any other cases you filed.
