FROM A LOCAL LEGEND... HERMANN J. WIEMER High-quality Riesling production is in Hermann J. Wiemer's blood. A pioneer of winemaking in New York's Finger Lakes AVA, Mr. Wiemer started his career replanting vines in his native Bernkastel in Germany's famed Mosel Valley after the devastation of WWII. When he emigrated to upstate New York in the 1960's, he found the gravelly soils and cool microclimate of western Seneca Lake an ideal setting to plant his hometown varietal, at a time when most in the region were skeptical of how well European varietals would take to the challenging growing conditions. Nearly fifty years later, the retired Herr Wiemer can proudly boast an estate that is consistently named not only the best winery in New York State, but one of the top wineries in the USA, producing truly world-class Riesling right here in our backyard!

PIERRE YVES COLIN-MOREY

Pierre Yves Colin was the winemaker for his father's Domaine Marc Colin until 2005. He began his own domaine, first as a micro-négociant operation, focusing on tiny quantities of the finest wines that he can buy. Now he has grown his domaine with the help of family holdings to 70% plots that he owns and 30% grapes he purchases. His holdings are mostly in Chassagne-Montrachet (where the domaine is located) but he also produces multiple bottlings of Meursault, St. Aubin and Puligny-Montrachet. Pierre-Yves has rapidly become a star in Cote de Beaune and is now considered one of the pre-eminent young producers of White Burgundy. His choice to use larger demi-muid barrels and eschew the use of battonnage, makes each one of his bottlings a clear expression of its terrior and a study in mineral-driven Chardonnay. Tasting in the Colin-Morey cellar (or anywhere you are lucky enough to have a bottle), is truly a special experience.
