A Note from Trinity's President Elect

Friends, the following message was received last week prior to the voters' meeting but after the bulletin had already been printed. We give thanks to God for George's willingness to serve as our new Trinity church president...and for all newly elected servant leaders.

I regret my absence today. Therese and I planned a weekend getaway for June 2nd through 4th at the end of February. I thank you for your confidence in me and I will execute the office of president, with the help of the Lord God, to the best of my abilities. I look forward to working with those who have accepted positions on the PPC and with pastor. God's blessing to you.

Signed: George Milcetch
