Verse 1

Though you walk through fire, you will not burn
Though the waters rise, you will not drown
Through the storms of life, there's no need to fear
I am the Lord your God, I am the Lord your God

Verse 2

Though the desert's dry, you will not thirst
Though the earth will shake, you will not move
Through the dark of night, there's no need to fear
I am the Lord your God, I am the Lord your God

Chorus

Lay your burdens down
Rest your weary soul
Let peace still your busy mind
I'm Yours & you are mine

Bridge

The morning comes
The sun will rise
Like a beating drum this hearts alive
