Verse 1

Up on the mountain
And over every winding road
When my heart is failing
I always trust in what You know
In the dryness I know Your river runs again

Chorus

Where can I run from Your love
Where can I hide from Your love

Verse 2

Here in the quiet
You fill my heart again
When my soul is weary
I know Your Spirit is my strength
All my worries
Today I leave them at the cross

Bridge

I wont be first to say it
I wont be the last to know
That inside this shell like body
Sings an everlasting soul
