- Lets kick things off with a xmas wish from our friends at Roman Pod and Cast - Audio Clip 0:25s
- From Jean-Paul Sinclair

I got a question for you guys to discuss;
If the characters in Star Wars had Music play lists, what would be in them. Here are some of my thoughts.....

Boba Fett - Bad Mother, James Brown

Palpatine - Flight of the Valkary

Chewie - think he likes a bit of reggae!

Yoda - for a period of quiet contemplation - endless loops of hardcore house

Have fun and MTFBWYA

Marc ; Vader - Back In Black after seeing him in Rogue One...

• From Kyle at TumblingSaber - a voicemail

Breakdown - do we need convincing to go standalone only, or do we need more saga?

• From Robert Robi Wan Kenobi Philips

Hi again grand senate of the commonwealth!!

Couple more questions.

Do you think Vader's conversion to the light will come to Kylo Ren's attention?

I think they made his hero worship too big a point not to.

How do you think he will react? Shattered beliefs? Or will it solidify his intentions to finish what Vader started, but was too weak to complete, For example?

Or does he already know? And chooses not to believe?

On the subject of the next title I think balance will be involved, due to the even keel TFA finished on.

Some of my friends believed the first order were thrashed by the resistance but I think it was a draw really.

The First Order destroyed the senate's main centre,

The resistance destroyed the First Order's base

Rey discovered her latent abilities and defeated an injured Ren

But Kylo killed Han and injured Finn,

Both have gone to their "masters" to complete their training

Whilst I think Rey is naturally stronger I think Ren has a head start and hasn't yet completed his training, now with him killing Han and being taught a lesson by Rey this will have grown his hate fear and anger.

And him being scarred and injured will only drive home his connection to grandad and iron his resolve,

I think at the end of episode 8 they will cross sabres again, and this will be a far more balanced and disciplined battle.

What do you think?

I'd love to hear your thoughts even if it is to call me a madman

As always your loyal ally (for hire, credits accepted)

Rob P

Note - Rob included some Rogue One thoughts and questions that were all settled in the movie so I thought we would leave them to one side.

Breakdown - Does Kylo Ren know that Vader was redeemed? Could VIII's theme be balance, from the title to a more balanced duel between Kylo Ren and Rey?

• From James at Tumbling Saber - a Voicemail

Breakdown - How could Ezra and Kanan be living during the OT?

• From Dave LanDonovan

When did Han and Leia actually learn Ben had left Luke and said F*** you!
Or did they even ever know he had?

I always imagined that the shot of Kylo looking at the Star Killer Base first blast, he's standing there wondering as it shoots toward Hosnian 'is my mom there?'

Drunk thought.

Breakdown - Did Han and Leia know Kylo had gone mental, and if so when? Did Kylo wonder if his Mum was on Hosnian Prime when it blew?

• Lets briefly hand the show over to Nathan Wan Kenobi Roberts, who has some really thoughtful comments about Rogue One in general and the use of Peter Cushing's likeness in particular. *Audio clip 4:36

BREAK - Followed by Conor's Corner

Promo spot for the Talk Star Wars Sponsorship scheme and VIP Program. Support us here.

Conor's Corner featuring Leo!

Twitter Poll Results

Next Week's Twitter Poll

So Gareth Edwards made an almost perfect #StarWars movie with #RogueOne, so the next question is obvious: Should Gareth return to make more?

1. Yes, anything!
2. Yes, another standalone
3. Yes a saga entry
4. No, one and done baby!

Star Wars Rebels

- Forest Whitaker is returning as Saw Gerrera in Star Wars Rebels. More here.

Classic Star Wars

- A 4K remaster of Star Wars could be on the way? Or could it?

Rogue One: A Star Wars Story

- Box Office - $323m in 4 days placing it at 345 in the all time BO chart. Took $155m in the opening weekend from 4,157 theatres compared to The Force Awakens' $248m in 4,134

VIII (Potential spoilers)

- Looks like the first Episode VIII material we see will be in the spring, most likely at Celebration, according to Kathleen Kennedy
- Snoke will be, at least in part, a puppet in VIII. More here.

“[We] don't know exactly how much screen time Snoke has in Episode VIII and that makes it impossible to say he's almost always a puppet in the film or CGI. But we do know the puppet is pretty impressive and appears to be articulated in such a way it seems it is more than an elaborate stand-in.”

Han Solo: A Star Wars Story

- Kathleen Kennedy confirms that Han Solo will be in production in February. I wonder how long it will be before we start seeing Alden Ehrenreich in costume, or in the Falcon next to Chewy?
