Welcome Shana Peete. Shana is the Executive Director for Partners for Change, a community-based effort to empower people to chart their course out of poverty and toward self-sufficiency by intentionally creating personal relationships that bridge financial class lines. RB #276: Turn Your Eyes Upon Jesus (refrain)

Closing Prayer

Hebrews 2:5-18 — 5 It is not to angels that he has subjected the world to come, about which we are speaking. 6 But there is a place where someone has testified: "What is mankind that you are mindful of them, a son of man that you care for him? 7 You made them a little[a] lower than the angels; you crowned them with glory and honor 8 and put everything under their feet." [b][c] In putting everything under them, [d] God left nothing that is not subject to them. [e] Yet at present we do not see everything subject to them. [f] 9 But we do see Jesus, who was made lower than the angels for a little while, now crowned with glory and honor because he suffered death, so that by the grace of God he might taste death for everyone. 10 In bringing many sons and daughters to glory, it was fitting that God, for whom and through whom everything exists, should make the pioneer of their salvation perfect through what he suffered. 11 Both the one who makes people holy and those who are made holy are of the same family. So Jesus is not ashamed to call them brothers and sisters. [g] 12 He says, "I will declare your name to my brothers and sisters; in the assembly I will sing your praises." [h] 13 And again, "I will put my trust in him." [i] And again he says, "Here am I, and the children God has given me." [j] 14 Since the children have flesh and blood, he too shared in their humanity so that by his death he might break the power of him who holds the power of death—that is, the devil— 15 and free those who all their lives were held in slavery by their fear of death. 16 For surely it is not angels he helps, but Abraham's descendants. 17 For this reason he had to be made like them, [k] fully human in every way, in order that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest in service to God, and that he might make atonement for the sins of the people. 18 Because he himself suffered when he was tempted, he is able to help those who are being tempted.

Go to <https://www.caringbridge.org/visit/shirleywillis> for updates on former member Shirley Willis. You can leave an encouraging message on the site to be read to her by her family. Update: The doctors are moving Shirley to Hospice care and not continuing with other treatments. Please continue to pray.

Former member Peggy Henry would love some correspondence as she has not gotten many cards lately. Her daughter, Karen, asks if you would send Miss Peggy a card in the mail, a Spring card or just a thinking-of you card? If you have a picture of you with her, that would be extra nice and brighten her day.

Colby Bevington's baby shower will be THIS Saturday, April 21 at 10:30 a.m. at Ann Butler's house. His nursery is brown & cream with teddy bears. The Bevingtons are registered at Target and Babies R Us.

Friendly Reminder — Next Week's Greeters :) Get your smiles on, Steve & Tonya Fisher, next Sunday, April 22 in the foyer at 8:45 a.m. and again at 10 a.m.. Thank you so much for your service! (If you're a greeter with a scheduling conflict, please swap with someone on your roster.)

Current Lesson The God Who Leads

Key Passage: Galatians 2:20 (NIRV)
I have been crucified with Christ. I don't live any longer, but Christ lives in me. Now I live my life in my body by faith in the Son of God. He loved me and gave himself for me.

Big Picture Question and Answer:
Why does God want us to obey Him? Obedience is our response to God's love for us.
