Dear Friends of Soltane,

As we close the chapter on another impactful year, I am thrilled to share the strides we've taken together in empowering adults with intellectual differences. It has been my honor to step into the role of Executive Director this year, and my joy to witness the seeds planted each day that lead to the tremendous growth of our work at Camphill Soltane. I am inspired by the faithful employees, selfless volunteers, caring parents, loyal friends, knowledgeable board members, generous benefactors, and supportive businesses, locally and across the country, who pour into our mission each and every day. Without you, our work would not be possible, and I'm proud to say our community is stronger because of it. Through your unwavering support, we've forged pathways of opportunity that lead to meaningful employment, artistic development, social engagement, and clinical therapies.

Through employment at Soltane Cafe and Soltane Horticulture, we've witnessed individuals harnessing their unique skills, contributing meaningfully to various initiatives. At Camphill Soltane, we are passionate and intentional about creating workplaces that embrace diversity and recognize the immense talents within our community. Artistic development has flourished in Entwine Arts, with our participants creating soulful works that not only showcase their creativity but also challenge stereotypes. The arts are a powerful avenue for self-expression, enabling our community members to share their stories with the world.

Social engagement opportunities such as Community Forum and Friday Community Lunch have fostered a sense of belonging, creating a supportive network where individuals can connect, share experiences, and celebrate each other's achievements. Our commitment to building an inclusive community has truly made a difference in the lives of those we serve. Our clinical therapy programs at Soltane Therapeutic Services continue to be a cornerstone of our holistic approach with personalized therapeutic interventions, addressing the unique needs of each individual and promoting mental and emotional well-being.

As we look to the future, the Camphill Soltane Board Members are committed to sustaining and expanding these pathways of opportunity. Likewise, our Leadership Team is actively involved in reaching and supporting more families and individuals with these opportunities. And our entire Camphill Soltane community is devoted to creating a society that values the diverse contributions of all its members. Thank you for standing alongside us as partners in this journey of empowerment.

With gratitude for what we have achieved together,

Lauren Prince, Executive Director

Meet Kathryn

Barista-in-Training

It doesn't take long at all to feel kinship with Kathryn. She is able to find common ground with everyone that walks into our Greenhouse Café and welcomes them with acceptance and friendship. Kathryn has been training at our Greenhouse Café located inside Kristina's House, our year-round tropical greenhouse and memorial space. Kathryn is not new to the cafe scene, having worked in various businesses before finding her way to Camphill Soltane. While here, Kathryn seamlessly initiates conversations with visitors while steaming the perfect latte. She has been with us since the beginning of the Greenhouse Café in September of 2022.

The Greenhouse Café was dreamt up as a way to expand our reach to include those in the Camphill Soltane community who bring different skill sets and interests outside of agriculture and horticulture. By creating a twice weekly meeting space for friends of Camphill Soltane, the Greenhouse Café has blossomed into a charming, serene place to meet friends, enjoy the scenery and catch up over a cup of high quality coffee. Our friends at Pigeon Creek Farm provide the creamiest milk to compliment the ever changing roasts of organic coffee and teas.

I have seen Kathryn's barista skills becoming increasingly fine tuned and she puts her own unique twist on the art of espresso. On any given Thursday, Kathryn leads the way with every aspect of the cafe ranging from counting the drawer, dialing in the espresso machine, taking orders, making drinks, and never forgetting to feed our fish! Kathryn's infinite creativity has inspired new designs for our coffee cups involving one-of-a-kind watercolor paper cups and hand cut stamps! It has been a pleasure to watch Kathryn excel and take pride in the work she is doing here at Camphill Soltane. With a full year of experiences in the reimaged greenhouse space, Kathryn is an inspiration to us all of what is possible in the coming years inside our little oasis filled with friends, plants, and good coffee. ♦

Meet Robert

Ceramics Apprentice

Robert has worked with me as an apprentice for more than a year. While our focus is on the ceramics studio, we have had a wide range of projects that takes us all around campus. Together we have reorganized the woodshop, installed art in the greenhouse and herb garden, and fixed up an old rabbit hutch as a house for Penelope the Pig. We also have a process of finding furniture on campus in need of repair, taking it to the woodshop to fix it up and refinish or paint it, and then finding a place where the piece can be useful.

Robert didn't have much clay experience before working with me, but has really taken to it. His first project was a collection of talismans: discs a few inches wide that he carved different patterns into and then glazed with bright colors. He has begun to make small figures, with different hats and facial expressions. He helps prepare the studio for my afternoon classes, and sets a good example for my students as we work on different pieces together during class.

While he needed some time to get used to Soltane (I remember him saying "I don't do crowds,") Robert has become comfortable joining group activities like our weekly community forum and picking apples in our orchard. He was integral in training my dog Woody as I started bringing him to work. We have become such a team that if I enter a room by myself the first questions are "Where's Robert?" and "Where's Woody?"

Robert has just started his freshman year at West Chester University, and maintains his connection to Soltane by joining me each week as an apprentice. We have more to explore in the ceramics studio, and I am excited to see what we make together. ◆

Entwine Arts

Entwine Arts is an inclusive arts initiative, nurturing creativity and community by providing quality art classes, workshops, and events that welcome people of all abilities. Artists with mixed abilities explore ceramics, fiber arts, and mosaics together, finding inspiration, exploring challenges, and developing as artists side by side. You can find our products in our online shop at studioentwine.square.site.

The Path to Employment

Employment

When ready, people may choose to seek paid employment. Camphill can help find job placement in the community in a role that reflects the focus and skills built at Soltane.

Volunteer

Within the chosen area of focus, volunteer opportunities are explored within & outside of Camphill Soltane.

Focus

After experiencing and participating in an array of activities, people choose an area of focus such as Horticulture, Textiles, or Ceramics.

Explore

Camphill Soltane welcomes people with an open heart & mind to allow for true exploration of interests, vocations, & pathways.

In the last year, Soltane hosted over 25 conferences, trainings, & events for mission aligned/like-minded Camphill, anthroposophical, or neurofeedback organizations, serving 400+ people.

Camphill Association of North America

The Camphill Association of North America (CANA) had its Annual General Meeting in New Orleans, LA at Raphael Village May 19-21, 2023. Kathleen and I were so grateful to represent Soltane as the two designated to the board of CANA and spend a few days getting to know New Orleans. This was Kathleen's first trip to the Big Easy, so she soaked in all of the culture and excitement of the city!

The Annual General Meeting of CANA had multiple necessary business agenda points including approving the budget for next year and reviewing last year's work, but within the few days at Raphael Village, we were able to familiarize ourselves with the work, geography, and history of New Orleans. We saw how all of these forces worked together to create and impact the urban Camphill. All of the trustees toured Raphael Village's school (Raphael Academy), day program town center (The Guild), and cafe (Dragonfly Cafe). We also saw an amazing presentation by The Guild members that explained the four major festivals that are celebrated at Raphael Village. All of the trustees were guests in Jackie Case's (Executive Director of Raphael Village) home for meals. We pet her dogs and cooled off from the NOLA heat in her pool all while reconnecting with friends from far and wide.

I found a visit to Audubon Park the most impactful part of our time. This park holds so much history of the city, its native people, and its colonialist founding, along with being the home of the almost 300 year old Tree of Life.

As a group of about 30 people, all attendees present stood on the exposed roots of the Tree of Life for a picture. We were led by Marianne Fieber, programs administrator at Raphael Village, around the park to significant milestones and sang, read poetry, and learned historical facts about the land we were on. She called this a "song trail".

Kathleen loved visiting the zoo in Audubon Park and participating in the eurythmy led by Sonja from Dornach, Switzerland.

Kathleen and I also traveled to Camphill Communities California in October, will visit Heartbeet in Vermont in March, and Otto Specht School in New York in May. We are looking forward to continuing our work on behalf of Camphill Soltane!

Krysta Knaster & Kathleen Rahling, CANA trustees

1988-1992

Camphill Soltane is founded as a place for young adults to have a college-like experience in a life sharing community. Peredur opens, orchards are planted, Windcrest and Emerson houses are built.

With the opening of Saelde House in 1992, Soltane welcomes graduates of Soltane's educational program to make Soltane their long-term home.

Celebrating 35 Years of Soltane

1993-1997

Iduna is built! Iduna's spacious Rose Room is Soltane's first community space. Nantmel Farmhouse opens and Rockrose is built. Soltane's educational program, Learning for Life, continues to grow and thrive with a diversity of classes and vocational training opportunities.

1998-2002

Soltane recognizes the value of off-campus jobs for people to expand their horizons and make an impact in their wider communities. Local business leaders play a key role in developing a network of job placements, while vocational opportunities at Soltane continue to grow!

Gawain and Nantmeal Road tunnel are built, and the Wine & Fine Dining event begins, co-founded by Dr. Johanna Allston and Ted Swinnerton.

Whitsun Hall is built, providing Soltane with a gymnasium, stage, art gallery, library, and more classrooms.

2003-2007

Roland Johnson Building opens with five apartments for semi-assisted living, signaling Soltane's readiness to offer more diverse living options. Soltane bell choir performs at Carnegie Hall! Beloved community member, Annegret Goetze, passes away.

2008-2012

With the widening age gap between students and long-term residents, Soltane re-defines its educational and vocational programs to better meet the changing needs of each group. Soltane becomes a qualified provider of adult day services. Recognizing its dual role as both a Camphill community and human services provider, Soltane opens up the possibility for people to apply their public funding to the day program. Our first fully integrated social enterprise, Soltane Café, opens in Phoenixville in 2011.

Soltane opens two homes in Phoenixville, providing options for more independent urban living while remaining connected to Soltane through the day program.

2018-2020

Soltane opens Community Arts Phoenixville, offering art classes and gallery space for artists with and without disabilities. The Soltane Store becomes the Entwine Store, and the Soltane Association is founded.

Longtime Soltane community member, Kristina Benzon, passes away. Dr. Beth Barol joins the Soltane Board of Directors as Board Chair. Social enterprises close due to the pandemic, and Soltane pivots to meet the needs of a community in crisis.

2013-2017

Soltane continues to grow its presence in Phoenixville with six residential homes. Emerson transitions to a Day Supports Center for Soltane's growing day program. Soltane founder Christl Bender passes away.

Kristina's House is built as Soltane's four-season horticultural center, and Soltane founds Parzival, a partner organization focusing on residential services.

2020-2023, and beyond!

Dr. Beth Barol becomes Executive Director and spearheads the development of Soltane Therapeutic Services, offering therapies, training, and trauma healing in a host of modalities.

Kristina's House becomes a vibrant community space with the addition of the Greenhouse Café and Memorial Garden. We host our first Empowered Healing Immersion, and welcome four Camphill-related organizations to share our campus. Lauren Prince steps into the Executive Director role in 2023.

Camphill Soltane is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization based in Glenmoore, PA. For 35 years we have provided opportunities for education, healing, and meaningful work for people with intellectual differences. We own and operate three social enterprises which offer vocational opportunities: Soltane Café in Phoenixville, PA, and Entwine Arts and Soltane Horticulture on our Glenmoore campus. We also offer healing supports through Soltane Therapeutic Services.
