

Character Education Forum

Hawaii Youth Soccer Association Maui

Presents

Positive Coaching Alliance - Hawaii

Empowering parents and athletes to use youth sports as a “Development Zone” to develop “Better Athletes, Better People”.

Exploring:

- Developing positive Parent relationship & Engaging children in meaningful conversations
- How Athletes can improve in the ELM Tree of Mastery, E-Tank fillers & Honoring the Game

Wednesday, September 6, 2017

Maui Waena Intermediate School
795 Onehee Avenue, Kahului, HI 96732

Second-Goal Parent
WORKSHOP
6:00pm to 8:00pm
Band Room

Triple-Impact Competitor
WORKSHOP
6:30pm to 7:45pm
Dining Hall

GUEST PRESENTER

Keoki Fraser grew up in Waimanalo and went to Kailua High School where he competed in football, baseball and track. He then earned a full-ride football scholarship to the University of Arizona, where he lettered for four years as an offensive lineman. After earning a Bachelor of Arts in Sociology, he moved back home and attended Chaminade University where he earned a Master of Arts in counseling psychology. Keoki coaches football and training for youth sport organizations when he's not surfing with his wife and 2 sons.

Brett Nakasone was born and raised in Wahiawa where he fell in love with the game of baseball. He graduated from Leilehua High School in 2008, lettering for four years in baseball and one in soccer. Brett continued playing baseball for Pacific University in Oregon where he played under Coach Greg Bradley for four years. During his senior year campaign, his team won the Northwest Conference Championship and he was voted as the team's Most Inspirational Player. With a BA in Psychology, he is now on staff at Christ Centered Community Church as the Youth Pastor and loves spending his time investing into Jr. High and High School students..

SPECIAL INTRODUCTION

Matthew Snyder

Director, Hawaii Youth Soccer Association Maui
RSVP: <https://goo.gl/forms/mVk1AEdP0yLatPAu2>

HAWAII