

Residential Living Building Policies Regarding GUSA Elections

Below are the policies that have been established by the Office of Residential Living regarding the annual GUSA campaigns. These policies pertain to all university-owned residential facilities. We kindly ask that candidates and their campaign staffs adhere to the following policies:

1. No door to door knocking during quiet hours. Hours are as follows:
 - a. 10pm – 9am Sunday-Thursday
 - b. 12am – 9am Friday and Saturday
2. When conducting door-to-door campaigning, students must wear identification (ex. Button, Sticker, or t-shirt) that clearly identify the campaign
3. No more than 2 people knocking during door to door, per campaign
4. Posters may only be placed in designated areas. Posters placed outside of the designated posting areas will be removed and discarded (this includes elevators and stairwells)
5. Posters may not be placed on student room doors without the resident's permission
6. Candidates may table in the University's designated tabling areas
7. No campaigning may occur at rooms where students have placed a "no solicitation" sign on their door

*Violations of the policies above will be reported to the GUSA Elections Commission

Candidates may reach out to RAs to host community events, but please know that RA involvement is completely voluntary and not required.
