

AMELIA SEAH LI LING

Always going the extra mile

Personal Statement

Whenever I set my heart on something, I would give it my all, and that goes the same for hosting. Be sure to expect 110% commitment from me, from event rehearsals to execution.

Since 14, I found joy in meeting and interacting with people. So at 17 in polytechnic, I took the opportunity to join a compere club. Since then, I've never stop striving to better myself as a host.

Annual Celebrations/Ceremonies

Remembering the Good Old Days (SG 50)

26 JUL 2015

Informal | Marine Parade Community Centre

Remembering the good old days brought three different generations together, as they get to relive and experience classic past times from the past. Together with a co-host, we introduced the activities of the event, conducted stage games and, announced winners of the lucky draw.

Singapore Polytechnic Excellence Awards

16 MAR 2015

Formal | Department of Student Development & Alumni Relations

The Excellence Awards Ceremony aims to recognise outstanding achievements, talents and contributions demonstrated by students of Singapore Polytechnic in the areas of co-curricular activities. As an emcee, I had to introduce the various award categories, invite prize presenters on stage and announce all winners.

Performing Arts Concert/Productions

Musical Delights XXXVIII

2 JAN 2015

Semi-Formal Event | Singapore Polytechnic Symphonic Band

Themed as a tour around the planets, the symphonic band played their renditions of famous pieces such as "Jupiter The Bringer of Jollity" from "The Planets Suite" composed by Gustav Holst. During the concert, I had to introduce the concert master, music director and titles of the songs the band is playing.

Life Savers Connect 2014

11-12 Sep 2014

Informal | Singapore Civil Defence Force

Life Savers Connect allow families to learn life-saving skills and knowledge in a fun carnival-like event. There were also opportunities for visitors to meet emergency responders, experience gadgets and the latest fleet of emergency vehicles first-hand. Together with a co-host, we had to heighten the atmosphere, promote activities, introduce stage programmes and always be on the ball to make impromptu announcements.
